THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

CALLED TO SERVE

The status of God’s beloved Son is not one He clings to. It is one He shares. All of us are called to be sons and daughters of God. In Jesus, we can all claim God’s favor. The second reading makes this clear. Here we read of the baptism of Cornelius and his household. Peter’s speech recalls the anointing of Jesus by the Holy Spirit and the great power that swept through Israel and onto the doorstep of the Gentile Cornelius.

As for his household, so for us. There is an end to our work on earth, to our baptismal vocation and the honorable work we do. But there is no end to the saving life given to us through baptism. There is no end to the life of the children of God; there is no end to God’s compassion, which we know in Christ Jesus. There is no end to our status as chosen and beloved people of God. Because of Jesus’ life, death, and resurrection, we are forever among those on whom God’s favor

Reflecting on God’s Word

Margaret left the massage therapist feeling released from the stress of the last few months, renewed and energized. It was as though the memory in her muscles was erased and their power was unleashed by the therapist’s healing touch and aromatic oils. The Rite of Baptism includes a kind of symbolic “massage” that has a similar purpose. The newly baptized are anointed with fragrant chrism and empowered by the Holy Spirit to live as members of Christ, who was anointed priest, prophet, and king. This connects Christians, the new Israel, to ancient Israel, in which priests, prophets, and kings were anointed to show that the Spirit of God was with them. It also connects us to Jesus, as today’s scriptures show.

In the second reading we hear that “God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power,” after which he “went about doing good, for God was with him” (Acts 10:38). Matthew shows Jesus being symbolically anointed with the Holy Spirit as God’s chosen Son, and the first reading describes what Jesus was chosen to do: establish “justice on the earth . . . open the eyes of the blind . . . bring out . . . those who live in darkness” (Isaiah 42:1, 7). In short, Jesus was chosen as the Messiah, or “Anointed One,” of God who would inaugurate the messianic era. The baptized are chosen and anointed as well, to continue Christ’s messianic mission in the church.

Living God’s Word

All the baptized have been “anointed with the Holy Spirit and power.” What is the Spirit empowering you to do? Should you write a letter to your senator about a justice issue, or volunteer at a prison or a school for the blind?

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Diocese of Venice continues to be blessed with vocations to the priesthood, evidenced by the three new priests ordained this past year, and 17 seminarians. Your support of the Annual Seminary Collection is crucial, now more than ever, as challenges increase for a proper environment for the formation and education of our future priests in the Diocese of Venice.

Recently St. Vincent de Paul Regional Seminary in Boynton Beach began a Capital Campaign. The seven arch/dioeceses in Florida, including the Diocese of Venice, are proportional stakeholders in the Seminary. While Pope Francis has reminded us that "... vocations are born in prayer and from prayer; and only through prayer can they persevere and bear fruit," adequate facilities and funds are needed for the education and formation of our future priests. The St. Vincent de Paul Regional Seminary presently needs renovation and expansion of outdated buildings and assurances for stability in the future.

To address these issues, I first kindly ask all to pray for priestly and religious vocations in the Church as well as for our seminarians. Further, I ask that you give to the financial support of the Seminary through this Annual Seminary Collection for the building up of a facility allowing for the education and formation of priests for the future.

The Seminary Collection will take place in all parishes of the Diocese the weekend of January 11 and 12, 2014. I thank you for your generosity as regards this important undertaking for the future of the Church in Florida. May God continue to bless you for your dedication to Holy Mother Church and for your support to the workers in the vineyard.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane

Christmas Pageant 2013
Statement of the Catholic Bishops of Florida on the 41st Anniversary of Roe v. Wade
January 22, 2014

"Every child who, rather than being born, is condemned unjustly to being aborted, bears the face of Jesus Christ, bears the face of the Lord, who even before he was born, and then just after birth, experienced the world’s rejection." (Pope Francis, September 2013)

On January 22, 1973, the U.S. Supreme Court legalized the termination of life in the womb, radically altering our country’s discourse regarding the fundamental human right to live. Since then, an estimated 55 million unborn children have been deprived of life in the United States alone. We, nevertheless, “rejoice in hope, endure in affliction, persevere in prayer,” as Paul instructed in his letter to the Romans. (cf. Romans 12:12)

We rejoice in hope as the number of abortions performed in Florida continues to decline every year. Close to 20,000 fewer abortions took place in our state in 2012 than did in 2006. We rejoice in hope while strides are made such as on June 5, 2013, when Governor Scott signed a bill into law that provides an infant born alive during an attempted abortion with the same rights, powers, and privileges as any other child born alive. The active involvement of our young in protecting the unborn is also a great hope to us.

We endure in affliction as we work and pray to overcome the high court’s far-reaching decision that has remained a scourge on our society, profoundly impacting the medical profession, the legal profession, the media, and through them, all people. This unjust ruling has perpetuated the intrinsic evil of killing the unborn child. As we endure, we will not rest in our efforts until the day when the unborn child achieves full legal recognition and protection of law, from the moment of conception.

We persevere in prayer for the mothers and fathers of the 76,138 unborn children who were aborted in our state in 2012. We persevere in prayer that the pregnant mothers in Florida who consider abortion may find their way to crisis pregnancy centers that will remind them of the truth and beauty of the gift from God in their womb, and support them in their time of need. We persevere in prayer for the healing and pastoral care of post-abortive mothers and fathers through ministries such as Project Rachel.

Pope Francis, addressing the International Federation of Catholic Medical Associations in September 2013, proclaimed, “A widespread mentality of the useful, the ‘culture of waste’ that today enslaves the hearts and minds of so many, comes at a very high cost: it asks for the elimination of human beings, especially if they are physically or socially weaker. Our response to this mentality is a decisive and unreserved ‘yes’ to life.”

May we accept our Holy Father’s challenge to protect life at all stages and see the face of our Lord in the unborn.
