APRIL 20, 2014
EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF OUR LORD

WHAT DO YOU KNOW?
“What do you know?” is the question linking all three readings today. Imagine the shock waves that shot through the city of Jerusalem that first Easter morning. Jesus’ body was missing! By the time Peter spoke the words found in today’s first reading, fifty days had passed, so he began by saying, in effect, “I take it you know what has been reported all over Judea about Jesus of Nazareth.” Of course they knew by then, but in today’s Gospel we are taken back to the first day. We meet Mary Magdalene exclaiming, “We don’t know where they put him!”

What do we know? In the second reading Paul asks, “Do you not know that a little yeast leavens all the dough?” Do we know the power of our own faith? Do we know the effect we can have on others?

Easter Sunday
April 20, 2014

When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with Him in glory.
~ Colossians 3:4

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — Peter is an eyewitness: The Lord is risen (Acts 10:34a, 37-43).

Psalm — This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad (Psalm 118).

(1) Second Reading — All who are baptized, set your hearts in heaven (Colossians 3:1-4) or
(2) Second Reading — Christ our Passover is sacrificed; therefore let us celebrate (1 Corinthians 5:6b-8).

Gospel — Three witnesses, Mary, Peter and John; each responds to the empty tomb (John 20:1-9) or Matthew 28:1-10 (or at an afternoon or evening Mass, Luke 24:13-35).

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY
(Sunday April 27)

◆ All parishioners are invited to participate in the special celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday, the Sunday after Easter. Fr. Toner will conduct a special service after the 10:30 a.m. Mass to highlight the celebration.
◆ Our Lord promised St. Faustina complete forgiveness of sins and punishment to all those who will go to Confession (during Lent or during Holy Week) and receive Holy Communion on this day.
◆ In addition, Pope John Paul II granted a plenary indulgence for the devout observance of Divine Mercy Sunday.
◆ So come, celebrate, and bathe in Our Lord’s ocean of graces and unfathomable mercy.

Be sure to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation prior to Divine Mercy Sunday (during Lent or during Holy Week). This is the day of extraordinary graces and “complete forgiveness of sins and [of its due] punishment” for those who approach Him in trust and faith.

The Novena to Divine Mercy begins on Good Friday.

To find the Novena you can google “Divine Mercy Novena”

All are invited to participate

JOY AND GLORY IN THE MORNING

EASTER

This is the day that the Lord has made. Let us rejoice and be glad in it. —Psalm 118:24

Christmas is a feast of midnight clear, but Easter is a celebration of miraculous dawn. The psalmist lauds the singular blessing of sunrise that even a doubting Thomas would be hard pressed to disprove: “Weeping may linger for the night, but joy comes with the morning.” Easter sunrise services are liturgical counterparts of the long cherished practice of rising early for a glimpse of glorious dawn. Nighttime shadows flee morning’s illuminating rays; killing frost melts into life-giving dew; and deadening silence yields to the uplifting song of the lark.

For you who fear my name, there will arise the sun of justice with its healing rays.
—Malachi 3:20

Mornings signify new beginnings and fresh starts. The very name “Easter” bids us to turn toward the brightening horizon for salvation. At dawn, the doubts and worries of night are replaced by feelings of renewal and purpose. This faith is celebrated by the iconic music of Easter: “Morning has broken, like the first morning.” Easter hymns like “All Shall Be Well” echo Julian of Norwich’s faith in happy endings, insisting that life shall prevail over death: “Dark night is done; bright morning comes at last.” Even the Beatles exhibit this universal faith in the hopeful joy of morning: “Here comes the sun and I say, ‘It’s alright.’”

On the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb. —Luke 24:1

Easter is the culmination of the battle between life and death lauded in the Easter sequence: “Death with life contended: combat strangely ended! Life’s own Champion, slain, yet lives to reign.” After the crucifixion, the disciples hide in fear, certain that the battle is lost. The women, however, perhaps unabashed in faith and hope, keep vigil at the tomb and find life victorious.
The Rites of Easter
Joy and Glory

The joy and glory of Easter cannot be contained in a day, but are celebrated for a full fifty days until culminating in the feast of Pentecost. For the newly baptized, this is a period of Mystagogy (being “led into the mystery”), a time for prayerful reflection on the rich experience of their sacramental journey. The symbols and rites of the Easter season are channels of this grace.

The Paschal Candle
The new Paschal candle towers over the Easter assembly, a majestic symbol of the joy and glory radiated by the risen Lord. Its stature is both inspiring and pragmatic, for it will burn at every Easter season Mass and every funeral rite during the year. This pillar of Christ is lowered into the baptismal font three times at the Easter Vigil in a symbolic intercourse that gives birth to the baptized so they may “rise to the life of newborn children through water and the Holy Spirit.”

The Renewal of Baptismal Vows
The recitation of the Creed on Easter is typically replaced by a renewal of baptismal vows. Easter joy and glory are diminished if the faithful do not pledge to renounce sin and follow Christ. There is symbiotic grace in this rite, for it has been inspired by the zeal of the newly baptized, just as the witness of the assembly in turn drew the catechumens to the Church. The faithful attest to their spoken vows by holding taper candles lighted from the Paschal flame as they are sprinkled with the waters of baptism.

The Return of “Alleluia”
The Easter season is marked by the joyful return of “Alleluia” to the liturgical celebration. Its Lenten absence represented a kind of spiritual fast, but with Christ arisen we once again feast on exuberant songs of “alleluia” or “Praise God!” Moreover, the Easter Sunday gospel procession is often extended in length and embellished with special musical settings. The dismissal rite is also enhanced with alleluias, sealing our call to go forth in the peace of the risen Christ.

Prayer: Risen Lord, may we be reborn in joy and glory through the mystery of Easter.

Easter Sunday

Reflecting on God’s Word

Sports reporters love to describe games in the present tense. A television announcer will say of the play that won the game, “If she doesn’t get that rebound her team walks away without the win.” A journalist writing for the next day’s paper will write, “She sees the block coming and gets the shot off just in time.” The purpose of this technique is to make us feel as though we are witnessing the event here and now.

In the scriptures that describe the events of Easter the present tense is no reporter’s technique. It is the core of our belief in the Resurrection. Yes, Christ was raised from the dead two thousand years ago, but that’s only the beginning of the story. Christ is risen and we are witnessing that event here and now. Those who were reborn in Baptism, anointed in Confirmation, and ate and drank with the Lord in the Eucharist at the Easter Vigil can attest to that truth. Christ is risen, and is filling those who believe with His life-giving Spirit today. As we give witness to our faith we would do well to follow the lead of the sports reporters and the psalmist, who sings, “This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.” Alleluia!

Easter Sunday
Alleluia!

During the past six weeks, our parish community has prayed, fasted and given alms with a special focus on the poorest members of our global community. Our lives were touched by stories from Kenya, Guatemala, the Philippines, Malawi, Haiti and the United States. Through our Lenten prayers and donations, we have touched the lives of millions of people served by Catholic Relief Services, our representative to the poorest communities in the world. Please return your Rice Bowl to us. Thank you for your generosity.

Easter Sunday
Alleluia!
CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR NEOPHYTEES !!!

On Saturday night at the Easter Vigil, fourteen RCIA members began their faith journey as Confirmed Catholics! Two members were baptized and twelve candidates were brought into full communion in the Catholic Church. These newly baptized and confirmed members of the Church have completed a long journey of home coming. Through months of preparation, they have come into full communion and they now need the love, prayers, and support of our community as they continue on their Catholic faith journeys.

Thank you neophytes, for witnessing our shared faith in such a visible and tangible way. May we all be on a continual conversion to become closer with our Creator.

The above picture was taken as the RCIA candidates, catechumens, and their sponsors participated in the Rite of Election at Epiphany Cathedral during the first Sunday of Lent with Bishop Dewane.
