TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

SPEAKING OUT IN LOVE

In the final verses of today’s Gospel reading Jesus says that when two or three are gathered in His name, “there am I in the midst of them” (Matthew 18:20). So we understand that fraternal correction is always undertaken in the presence of Jesus Christ.

Likewise, encouraging the good in others is not only the right thing for us to do, it is a necessity. The LORD tells the prophet Ezekiel that if he does not speak out to dissuade a person from evil, then he too will be held responsible.

We live in a “do your own thing” age where moral objectivity is often ignored. Clearly when the message we share with others is rooted in love, our motives cannot ever be misinterpreted. As Saint Paul writes, “Love does no evil to the neighbor; hence, love is the fulfillment of the law” (Romans 13:10).
VENICE, FL — With heartfelt sorrow the Diocese of Venice in Florida announces that the Most Reverend John J. Nevins, the beloved Bishop Emeritus of the Diocese of Venice, died yesterday evening, August 26, 2014 at his residence in Venice, Florida. Bishop Nevins served as the first bishop of the Diocese of Venice from 1984 to 2007.

Bishop John J. Nevins was born Jan. 19, 1932 in New Rochelle, N.Y. to John and Anne (McGuire) Nevins. He attended Blessed Sacrament grammar and high schools and continued on to Iona College. After graduating from the School of Philosophy at The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C., where he also pursued his theological studies, he earned a Master’s in Social Work from Tulane University in New Orleans, La. He holds several honorary doctorates.

Ordained to the priesthood on June 6, 1959 at the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, then-Father Nevins served the Archdiocese of Miami in many capacities for almost 25 years, including vicar general, rector of St. John Vianney Minor Seminary, and director of vocations.

On March 24, 1979, following his appointment by then-Pope John Paul II, he was ordained Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Miami. Five years later, on July 17, 1984, Bishop Nevins was appointed by Pope John Paul II as the first Bishop of the newly formed Diocese of Venice in Florida and was installed by Archbishop Pio Laghi, Apostolic Pro Nuncio to the United States, at Epiphany Cathedral in Venice on October 25, 1984.

The Catholic population in the 10-county Diocese expanded from approximately 115,000 to more than 200,000 parishioners under his care. In an effort to meet better the spiritual needs of the burgeoning Catholic population, Bishop Nevins added 15 parishes to the original 39, and increased the number of chapels and missions to 13. He also oversaw the ordinations of 50 men to the priesthood. Bishop Nevins established a new elementary school, a school for adult formation, and two retreat centers.

Under his episcopal motto: “To Serve with Mercy,” he responded to changing societal needs by instituting many Diocesan ministries, including those to migrant farm workers, unwed mothers, refugees, and people with HIV/AIDS.

Bishop Nevins served as Vice-President of the Florida Catholic Conference; and was a member of the Board of Trustees of St. Vincent de Paul Regional Seminary; a board member of St. John Vianney Seminary, Saint Leo University, the Florida Catholic newspaper, the Catholic Near East Welfare Association, and the Franciscan Foundation for the Holy Land; and a member of the USCCB National Council of Synagogues/BCEIA Dialogue Committee. He retired as Bishop of the Diocese of Venice on his 75th birthday, Jan. 19, 2007.

The remains of Bishop Nevins will be received at Epiphany Cathedral on Tuesday, September 2, 2014 at 3pm. His body will lie in state until 12:00 midnight that evening, with a Memorial Mass celebrated at Epiphany Cathedral at 7:00 p.m.

The Mass of Christian Burial will take place at Epiphany Cathedral on Wednesday, September 3, 2014 at 11:00 a.m.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Bishop John J. Nevins Scholarship Fund at 1000 Pinebrook Rd, Venice, FL 34285. This fund provides scholarships to students with demonstrated financial need who are already attending or wish to attend Epiphany Cathedral School.

REMEMBER

Almighty God, September 11th will be indelibly inscribed in our memories. We remember the horror of the terrorist attacks. But we also remember the honor of the acts of courage performed by ordinary people who sacrificed themselves to prevent further death and destruction. We shed our tears in a common bond of grief for those we loved and lost. We journeyed through a dark valley, but your light has led us to a place of hope. You have turned our grief into determination. We are resolved to do what is good, and right, and just. Help us to remember what it means to be Americans—a people endowed with abundant blessings. Help us to cherish the freedoms we enjoy and inspire us to stand with courage, united as one Nation under God in the midst of any adversity. Lord, hear this prayer for our Nation. Amen.
