SEPTEMBER 21, 2014
TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

SEEK THE LORD

In today’s opening reading, Isaiah urges us to “seek the LORD” who is “near” and can be “found” (Isaiah 55:6). Then Isaiah says God’s ways are as high above our ways “as the heavens are above the earth” (Isaiah 55:9). So we search, not because God is hiding, but because our tendencies are so different from God’s ways that we get lost.

How are God’s ways so high above our ways? The example Isaiah gives is that God’s way is to be “generous in forgiving” (Isaiah 55:7). And our way? We try to be “fair.” You hurt me, so then I hurt you back, just as hard. Then, of course, you . . . . And on it goes.

In today’s Gospel Jesus teaches that God is not “fair” like that. Instead, God is so generous we can hardly understand it. The same wage for one hour as for a whole day of work? Not fair! “Seek the Lord,” and we might find a God who calls us to be, not fair, but generous beyond expectations.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Catholic Church throughout the world mourns the terrible crisis, loss of life and suffering of those innocent victims in the Middle East, the cradle of Christianity. Many families are fleeing the areas and large numbers are being displaced. The continuation of this crisis causes great despair, panic and hopelessness to the innocent victims.

Given the extraordinary nature of this crisis, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops is asking that a special collection be taken up to provide humanitarian relief and pastoral support for our effected brothers and sisters in the Middle East. The funds will be used by Catholic Relief Services and other agencies which are well established partnerships with the Catholic Church in the region. These agencies will strive to meet the most urgent humanitarian needs. Your generosity will help those victims struggling to protect their children, themselves, and their lives in these dire conditions. Going forward the funds will provide them an opportunity hopefully to rebuild their lives.

This special Collection is scheduled for the weekend of September 20/21, 2014 in the Diocese of Venice. This is the perfect occasion for us to support our brothers and sisters in need at the time of their crisis.

I take this opportunity to extend to you my continued consideration and my prayers! Thank you for your generosity for this population so in need at this time.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida

Sacramental Preparation:
Are you enrolled?
Don’t miss the boat!

Sacramental Preparation is a two year preparation period. Faith Formation is a life-long journey; in order for a child to receive God’s graces through the sacraments he or she needs to be enrolled in Religious Education or Youth Ministry for at least two years.

♦ 1st Grade students need to be actively attending a Diocesan Religious Education Program to receive the Eucharist in the 2nd Grade

♦ 9th Grade students need to be an active member of Resurrection Youth Ministry to be Confirmed in 10th grade

The process of seeking, receiving and celebrating God's mercy and forgiveness is meant to be a source of joy. It is difficult to admit one's faults, and sometimes even more difficult to ask forgiveness. Pope Francis, however, reminds us that it need not be something to fear, because the Lord is always ready and eager to bestow His healing love: Whenever we take a step toward Jesus, we come to realize that He is already there, waiting for us with open arms. Now is the time to say to Jesus: "Lord, I have let myself be deceived; in a thousand ways I have shunned Your love, yet here I am once more, to renew my covenant with You. I need You. Save me once again, Lord, take me once more into Your redeeming embrace."

How good it feels to come back to Him whenever we are lost! Let me say this once more: God never tires of forgiving us; we are the ones who tire of seeking His mercy. (Pope Francis, Evangelii Gaudium [The Joy of the Gospel] [Washington, DC: United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, 2013], no. 3)

Baptism should mark an end of sin for us. But let's face it: we are weak and do not always stay true to our baptismal promises. We do not always hold fast to grace. We do not always say no to sin. Yet God's love for us is so deep that He makes provision even for the sins we commit after we are baptized. The Lord does not do this by turning a blind eye to sin as an indulgent parent might do, for the Holy One demands holiness.

Peter makes this clear in an exhortation: "As He who called you is holy, be holy yourselves in every aspect of your conduct, for it is written, 'Be holy because I [am] holy'"(1 Pt 1:15-16). The Lord doesn't just demand holiness. He empowers us to be holy by making forgiveness available to us through the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation and by giving us the Holy Spirit.

What cooperation is required of us to receive the forgiveness Jesus offers? We must humbly admit our sins and turn to the Lord. St. John beautifully explains: "If we say, 'We are without sin,' we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we acknowledge our sins, He is faithful and just and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from every wrongdoing"(1 Jn 1:8-9).

Pastors, catechists and parents must never tire of extending the invitation of forgiveness with love and genuine joy!
CELEBRATION OF CATECHISTS - SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 2014

Resurrection Parish celebrates:

PARENTS...
the first catechists who live everyday and model the love of Christ to and for their children.

PASTORS, PRIESTS, DEACONS... who celebrate the Sacraments everyday and who model the love of Christ for us all.

LAY ECCLESIAL MINISTERS... whose life, studies and works communicate the love of Christ to all.

CATECHISTS... who volunteer to echo the memory of Christ, the Gospel and prepare others for the Sacraments.

WHO ARE CATECHISTS? ALL OF US!
BY OUR LIVES WE ANSWER THE CALL OF CHRIST

“Go, therefore, make disciples of all nations; baptize them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all the commands I gave you. And look, I am with you always; yes to the end of time.” Matt. 28:19

Catechists and Families Sharing Faith Experiences!

“My goal is to make the stories of Jesus come alive in the heart and lives of the children so they will know God’s love and forgiveness...” Adriana C. teaches Grade 1.

Teresa P. assists in Grade 2 - Her concern is the lack of faith in our country.

Maureen M. - Teacher for Kindergarten believes “If God brings you to it, God will bring you through it.”

“I have been blessed by GOD as well as by the Catholic church. I have done little in my life that will show up on an application for heaven. I hope that teaching religion will earn a bullet point on that application. I am simply repaying a favor but also find great joy in delivering the lessons of the church to such hungry little minds.” Erin V. - teaches Grade 4

EMPOWERING - Kristen N. - teaches with Grade 5.

BELIEVE - Diana S. assists in Grade 1.

GUIDANCE– Lisette V. teaches Grade 3.

Catechists share their goal in responding to the call to be a catechist!
“For this is how God loved the world He gave His only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him may not perish but may have eternal life. For God sent His Son into the world not to judge the world, but so that through Him the world might be saved.” John 3:16-17

CATECHISTS CELEBRATE ETERNAL LIFE AT RESURRECTION!

David and Mary R. gather for the Sarah Hart Retreat last Nov. David is preparing to be a Deacon. Mary prepares the children for the Sacrament of Eucharist. “In this classroom we get to talk about everything that matters most...and we make a JOYFUL noise too!”

Jerry H. - Catechist for Grade 5 responds to God’s call in abundant ways as a member of Resurrection from the beginning. You can find Jerry at Sunday Morning Donuts with Family Circle, Men’s Club and in Faith Formation. He hears the call of Jesus often.

Ann V. sharing with a young parishioner. Ann has helped with First Eucharist for over ten years. She sees Jesus in the eyes of those she shares faith.

“Jesus I trust in you!” - are the words that come to mind when Kathy C. responds to the call to be a catechist. Kathy has taught for over ten years.

AFFIRMATION - As a child, I always felt God’s love and hope to help others feel the same.
Lori M. - assists in Grade 3

Lisa B. assists with Grade 4.

Tajh C. - assists in Grade 1.

PARENTS gather with their children to participate in a special day of retreat as they prepare for First Eucharist.
Theology On Tap is a weekly gathering for Catholic young adults (20’s and 30’s). We meet in a comfortable setting to explore our faith, make friends and build community. We invite you to join us for a pint and a prayer. For Questions and RSVP contact: George L. Smith • (941) 484-9543 ext. 3036 • gsmith@dioceseofvenice.org

Faith and Wine

Please join us as we support Gabi Frei, a gifted Catholic musician and singer, who will share her personal faith journey through a mixture of original songs and a few more known praise and worship songs. Gabi’s music shows how she has surrendered her heart to God’s will.

6:30-8:30 p.m.
St. John the Evangelist PLC Ballroom
625 111th Avenue North, Naples

Full of Grace - Songs of Surrender and Trust to Jesus through Mary

Free babysitting available on site!!

As women and mothers, Gabi believes “Our vocation is one that necessitates constant rejuvenation, constant openness to His grace and strength. But that is our life - we can be full of grace because HE is generous and gives us what we need to endure each moment. Our cup can overflow into our families and communities because He first fills it. Surrender to His will places us in perfect position to receive all He has in store, all the grace, all the strength, all the promises. And Mary is our model - we echo her Magnificat, her “yes”, unified with Jesus saying not my will but yours to the Father.”
