CHRIST THE KING

THE LORD’S FLOCK

Sheep are high-maintenance animals. They are not very intelligent. Without guidance and care, especially in a climate like Israel’s, they would die quickly from predators, starvation, or just their own slowness. The scriptural image of us as the Lord’s flock is not terribly flattering to us, since it is only the never-ending diligence of a watchful shepherd that allows the flock to survive.

The feast of Christ the King was intended to call the world back to Christ as the sole power of the world, to bring back a flock that had been scattered by many negative forces of the growing industrial, scientific, and war torn world of the early twentieth century. It is fitting that, as we celebrate Christ the King, we hear about Christ the Shepherd who cares for us and who, likewise, will be there at the end of time. Interestingly enough, as the Gospel illustrates, our own destiny is determined by the way we have been “shepherds” to the rest of the flock.

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — I will rescue my scattered sheep (Ezekiel 34:11-12, 15-17).

Psalm — The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want (Psalm 23).

Second Reading — As in Adam all die, so too in Christ all shall be brought to life (1 Corinthians 15:20-26, 28).

Gospel — Whatever you did to the least ones, you did to me (Matthew 25:31-46).

OPLATKI WAFERS

AVAILABLE AT THE GIFT SHOP & PARISH OFFICE

The Christmas wafer (opłatek, plural opłatki) is a Central European Christian Christmas tradition celebrated in Polish families during Christmas Eve Vigil.

The unleavened wafers are baked from pure wheat flour and water, are usually rectangular in shape and very thin; they are identical in composition to a round wafer which becomes the Host after the Consecration during Mass in the Roman Catholic Church. Being only a reminder of the Body of Christ used in private homes, Opłatki lack sanctification by a priest or bishop. The Opłatki wafers are embossed with Christmas related religious images, varying from the nativity scene, especially Virgin Mary with baby Jesus to the Star of Bethlehem.

COST IS $3.00

Our Society of St. Vincent de Paul Conference exists solely on the generosity of the members of our Parish.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all those who faithfully contribute to the Poor Boxes and the Blue Envelopes, which are located at the entrances of the church.

The statistics for the last twelve months are:

- Within our Parish and St. Vincent DePaul boundaries: $42,327.03 in the form of food, utilities, medical and rent assistance was given.
- Domestic Twinning: $17,250.00 (Twinning is the sharing of friendship, prayers and material resources with another St. Vincent DePaul Conference less fortunate than ours which is in dire need of assistance.)
- International Twinning: $2,000.00 (Haiti, Kingston, West Indies, Iraq families and children)
- Disaster Contributions: $3,500.00 (Philippines, Fire damage assistance, W.I. National Disaster Fund)

We have but one special collection on Thanksgiving Day.

We are asking you to please be generous during Thanksgiving’s collection. In addition, we remind you to please use the Blue Envelopes at the Poor Boxes, as they are the Bread Boxes of the Poor. Remember that your donations are tax deductible.

Our gift to you? We pray for you always and we have special Masses for you during the year.

May the Good Lord bless all of you for your continued support.

MINISTRY OF THE SICK

The following hospitals are attended to by the parish in which they are located:

* Gulf Coast Hospital - visited daily by Blessed Pope John XXIII Parish, 561-2245
* Lee Memorial Hospital - visited daily by St. Francis Xavier Parish, 334-2161
* Lee Memorial and Hospice at Health Park - visited daily by St. Columbkille Parish, 489-3973

A priest is on call 7 days a week, 24 hours a day for the above hospitals at the above telephone numbers.

TO ALL PARISHIONERS AND VISITORS:

To protect your privacy hospitals do not give out information on patients without their permission. If you wish a visit from one of the Resurrection priests please notify the hospital as well as the parish office, 481-7171 as quickly as possible.

Resurrection priests visit the above hospitals daily upon request.
To be just toward others, we must work to ensure they have adequate resources to meet their human needs. Projects supported by the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) move beyond providing for immediate needs. They work to build healthy, sustainable futures for communities.

Ten years ago, Boston’s Haley House began offering bakery training at the request of a few regular guests at the soup kitchen. Due to high demand, Haley House expanded the training into a six-month course that includes customer relations and basic business principles. Haley House currently has 70 trainees who have completed the program and are now employed in the Boston area. Haley House also offers cooking classes for at risk teens and holistic, individual support to men and women re-entering the community after incarceration.

Like Haley House, Faith Works recognizes the value of human relationships in the fight against poverty. Operating in the Roanoke Valley, Faith Works builds community through conversation. After listening to residents and members of parishes and congregations in the city’s Southeast area, the group worked to get the area recognized as “medically underserved,” and thereby secured $6 million for a new health clinic. This change will make a dramatic difference in the lives of residents, 80 percent of whom are uninsured.

The dialogue fostered by Faith Works also bridges racial divides. One member commented that “nowhere else would we probably have talked to each other, but here we are now working together, gardening [in community gardens] together.” Members are working to train leaders in the Hispanic community and to listen to their concerns.

Haley House and Faith Works create a strong local economy by building human relationships and carry on Christ’s mission “to bring glad tidings to the poor . . . liberty to captives . . . sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free” (Lk 4:18).

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development funds programs like these in communities across the United States and helps people living in poverty join together, identify problems and find ways to improve their lives and neighborhoods.

CCHD is the official domestic anti-poverty agency of the Catholic bishops in the United States. Your support helps to end poverty one community at a time. Working together, we can reach out and touch the lives of those living on the margins of society. Please visit www.povertyusa.org to read more details of CCHD’s efforts to spread Christ’s love by helping to break the cycle of poverty in your community and across the country.
Our Lord Jesus Christ,
King of the Universe

Reflecting on God’s Word
Political power meets spiritual power in today’s conversation between Jesus and Pilate. “Are you the King of the Jews?” Pilate asks Jesus (John 18:33). Pilate is concerned about whether Jesus is a threat to Roman rule, just as the Jewish leaders see Jesus as a threat to their authority. Jesus is thus either guilty of fomenting insurrection as a militant messiah or of speaking blasphemy by presenting himself as one who inaugurates the reign of God.

Jesus, however, speaks not about himself as a king but about a kingdom that “does not belong to this world” (John 18:36). This kingdom may not be of this world but it is in this world. God’s kingdom is present in Jesus as one who comes to bear witness to the truth. And what is this truth? That “God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life” (John 3:16).

Jesus is the Word become flesh who made his dwelling among us, so that we might see his glory, “the glory of the Father’s only Son, / full of grace and truth” (John 1:14). The hour of glory was the hour of the cross, the hour not of political power, but God’s power shining through human weakness, bringing light into the darkness, revealing self-sacrificing love so that we might have life.

Political power tends to be an upward climb into dominance and authority that must be protected at all costs. It frequently leads to isolation and abuse, to clinging to power as its own end. Spiritual power is having the strength to trust God and surrender so that God can reign, not by conquest or political alliances, but through human weakness and surrender to God.

Living God's Word
We pray that we might be part of God’s people who continue to proclaim Jesus as the One to whom we give our allegiance, and that we show this in the world by working to bring about God’s kingdom where mercy and justice, peace and love rule.

40 Years - Celebrating Church of the Resurrection

MISSION STATEMENT OF OUR PARISH
“Convinced that Jesus communicates new life to those who believe in Him, and that He was raised from the dead in order that we might live, we are united to the risen Lord as a people born anew to a life of hope. Called together as a people of faith, we believe that the Father who raised Jesus from the dead will also raise us, and that we will continue to bear witness to the fact that we are liberated from sin.

Church of the Resurrection named as a parish in 1977 - Land and building purchased from Diocese of St. Petersburg. 14 Masses held to accommodate increased parishioners

Christmas Angel Trees

We are sponsoring Christmas Angels for needy families again this year. Last year with your generosity we were able to give a wonderful Christmas to numerous families and over 1200 children’s wishes were granted. We would like to do the same this year. The angels are available at all the entrances of the church. Please visit one of the trees and select an angel. Gifts need to be returned wrapped with the Angel attached and brought to the Church or the Parish Center no later than December 7th. If you prefer to leave a cash donation, please do so in the Parish Center, also by December 7th. On behalf of all the wonderful children that will benefit from your generosity, we thank you very much.
