TODAY’S READINGS
First Reading — Peter is an eyewitness: The Lord is risen (Acts 10:34a, 37-43).
Psalm — This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad (Psalm 118).
(1) Second Reading — All who are baptized, set your hearts in heaven (Colossians 3:1-4) or
(2) Second Reading — Christ our Passover is sacrificed; therefore let us celebrate (1 Corinthians 5:6-8).
Gospel — Three witnesses, Mary, Peter, and John; each responds to the empty tomb (John 20:1-9) or

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY
(Sunday April 12)

◆ All parishioners are invited to participate in the special celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday, the Sunday after Easter. There will be a special service after the 12:00 p.m. Mass to highlight the celebration.

◆ Our Lord promised St. Faustina complete forgiveness of sins and punishment to all those who will go to Confession (during Lent or during Holy Week) and receive Holy Communion on this day.

◆ In addition, Pope John Paul II granted a plenary indulgence for the devout observance of Divine Mercy Sunday.

◆ So come, celebrate, and bathe in Our Lord’s ocean of graces and unfathomable mercy.

Be sure to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation prior to Divine Mercy Sunday (during Lent or during Holy Week). So, take advantage of the extra times offered for Reconciliation during Lent and Holy week. This is the day of extraordinary graces and “complete forgiveness of sins and [of its due] punishment” for those who approach Him in trust and faith.

The Novena to Divine Mercy begins on Good Friday.

Divine Mercy Novenas can be found on Google - “Divine Mercy Novena”

All are invited to participate

Easter Sunday

During the first three or four centuries of Christianity, if you asked a Christian to name the feast days of the Church, your answer would have been a puzzled stare, for there was only one feast: the Resurrection of the Lord. Every Sunday was a feast celebrating the one great feast. Even though our calendar now has many beautiful and holy feasts, we must continually be called back to the fact that all these other feasts exist because of the feast of Christ's passover from death to life. The psalm today proclaims this message well: "This is the day." It is not one of many days, but it is the day of all days, the one that gives all the others their origin, purpose, meaning, and destiny. Listen carefully to Peter's speech in Acts with its recollection of the Passion, to the words of the apostle Paul and to the account of Mary Magdalene, John, and Peter finding the empty tomb, and you will hear the many wonderful works that God has done for us through Christ. Rejoice and be glad!

AN EARTHY, EARTHLY FEAST

Many of our popular customs and symbols surrounding Easter come from the earth and nature: the fragrant, blooming lilies and the eggs decorated with the panorama of spring colors among others. These all have their origins in pre-Christian festivals of the northern hemisphere where the rejuvenation of the earth is celebrated after winter. It was only natural for the great feast of new life--the Resurrection of our Lord--to be connected to these springtime feast days as the gospel was spread by the witnesses to the Resurrection. Their strength and durability to this very day attests to the natural connection that they have to the Paschal Mystery. But Easter is an "earthly" feast in a much more important way. The glorified, risen Christ chose not to abandon the earth and its people after his resurrection, but to make certain that his presence remained on earth, among his people.

OUR EARTHY BODIES, BODIES OF CHRIST

In his discourse in the Acts of the Apostles, Peter affirms that the risen Christ "ate and drank" with his witnesses after he was raised from the dead. Most commentators agree that this is noted not because the risen Christ was in need of food or nourishment, but because he wanted to establish in a powerful way the connection between his earthly ministry and his glorified existence, raised from the dead. And he, firstborn from the dead, remains inseparably joined to us, his brothers and sisters, who now are the Body of Christ on earth. If Peter and John did not find a body in the tomb on Easter morning, by the time Peter was delivering his speech in Acts he certainly understood that the body they had been seeking that morning still was with them, among them, through their witness. We still are called to be human witnesses to the world that Christ is still very much alive and very much present on this earth. To this very day, everything about us that is human--our very flesh and blood, our hopes, despair, sadness, and love--must witness to this, be joined to Christ and reflect the glory of his resurrection, in the eternal light of God.

Guidelines for the Reception of Holy Communion
(Promulgated by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, Nov. 1996)

For Catholics
As Catholics, we fully participate in this celebration of the Eucharist when we receive Holy Communion. We are encouraged to receive Communion devoutly and frequently. In order to be properly disposed to receive Communion, participants should not be conscious of grave sin and normally should have fasted for one hour. A person who is conscious of grave sin is not to receive the Body and Blood of the Lord without prior sacramental confession except for a grave reason where there is no opportunity for confession. In this case, the person is to be mindful of the obligation to make an act of perfect contrition, including the intention of confessing as soon as possible (canon 916). A frequent reception of the Sacrament of Penance is encouraged for all.

For our fellow Christians
We welcome our fellow Christians to the celebration of this Eucharist as our brothers and sisters. We pray that our common baptism and the action of the Holy Spirit in the Eucharist will draw us closer to one another and begin to dispel the sad divisions which separate us. We pray that these will lessen and finally disappear, in keeping with Christ’s prayer for us “that they may all be one” (Jn 17:21). Because Catholics believe that the celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of the oneness of faith, life and worship, members of those churches with whom we are not yet fully united are ordinarily not admitted to Holy Communion. Eucharistic sharing in exceptional circumstances by other Christians requires prior permission according to the directives of the diocesan bishop and the provisions of church law.

For those not receiving Holy Communion
All who are not receiving Holy Communion are encouraged to express in their hearts a prayerful desire for unity with the Lord Jesus and with one another.

For non-Christians
We also welcome to this celebration those who do not share our faith in Jesus Christ. While we cannot admit them to Holy Communion, we ask them to offer their prayers for the peace and unity of the human family.

On Sun., March 22 and Wed., March 25, the families in Religious Education celebrated “Passover” by having a Seder together as one family!!!

“And he took the bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them, saying, “This is my body, which will be given for you; do this in memory of me.”—Luke 22:19
A BIG THANK YOU to everyone you participated! Especially to the MANY volunteers who helped make this a very special time!

“...He was made known to them in the breaking of the bread.” —Luke 24: 35
Celebrating the Easter Season

Easter is a seven week season of joy and grace. Starting with the Triduum in Holy Week and ending with Pentecost Sunday, this 50 day season has been called "the radiant center of the liturgical year." We keep celebrating so that we might continue to enter into the meaning of the resurrection and to deepen the way it touches our daily lives.

After Easter Week's resurrection stories, the first reading for the rest of this long and glorious season is from the Acts of the Apostles. Every day we see how Jesus' followers reacted to his death, the challenges to their witness and the unexpected courage that comes to them. John's Gospel is used for the entire Easter Season, the one time of year we can enter into his poetic and layered stories on a daily basis.

Easter only begins with Easter Sunday. These daily prayers and meditations come together to remind us that Jesus is with us. He is not dead, but alive. And, that makes all the difference in the world in how much hope and courage we have, before any struggle, any possible fear of death.

In these 50 days, we are Easter People!
