OCTOBER 11, 2015
TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

DISCIPLESHIP AND WEALTH

Sometimes we get the idea that having material wealth is a bad thing. We may convince ourselves that it is the poor who are favored. In today’s readings, we discover that material wealth alone does not keep us from discipleship. We will see that there are other gifts more important than material wealth, but even so, it is how we use our gifts that matters most.

Today’s scriptures point to the value of the gifts of wisdom, trusting in God, and letting our actions reflect the love of God from within. It is not gold that causes us to fall, but rather the desire for gold above all other things. From the readings in Wisdom and Hebrews, we find the source of God’s gifts in our lives. Wisdom is more valuable than worldly possessions. In Hebrews, we are challenged to look at our own values and admit honestly what controls our lives.

PORT CHARLOTTE - During the past year, the Institute for Catholic Studies and Formation has been working to establish a new partnership with a nationally known university in order to offer graduate courses here in the Diocese of Venice.

After much diligent work and many meetings, that effort between Diocese of Venice and Franciscan University of Steubenville, Ohio is now a reality.

“Franciscan University is held in particularly high esteem throughout the country, and the partnership between the Catholic Institute and Franciscan University should be celebrated as a historic event,” Bishop Frank J. Dewane said. “To date, no other Diocese in the United States has been able to secure such an arrangement with Franciscan University. This is a testament to the confidence of the university in the Diocese’s ability to teach a genuine and evangelizing Catholic faith.”

Dr. Kathy Kleinlein, President of the Institute, said the new affiliation will open up a partnership that will benefit the faithful of the Diocese of Venice for years to come.

“This is an important milestone for the Institute and the Diocese,” she said. “The Diocese has been rewarded with a unique opportunity to work with a university with great reputation and high quality graduate courses. This is a huge benefit for our diocese.”

In January 2016, the Institute will begin offering prerequisite courses for Diocesan students who have been accepted at FUS. In fall 2016, the Institute will begin offering graduate level courses for the Master of Arts in Catechetics and Evangelization program, which will consist of on-site and video conferenced courses through the Institute as well as on-line courses through the university.

The benefits of registering with the Institute include:

* Students will save 30 percent by taking courses through the Institute.
* Students will learn from trusted Catholic scholars associated with an accredited university.
* Students will be able to participate in Franciscan University webinars, wikis and podcasts as well as listen to recorded lectures.
* Students will receive dedicated academic, administrative and technical support from Institute professors and staff.

In recent years, many have expressed concerns about the need for qualified laypeople in the Parishes. This effort will enable directors of religious education and catechists, young adult directors and teams, directors of RCIA and directors of adult faith formation as well as anyone wanting to supplement their education at the graduate level, to receive theological training and professional development on the graduate level.

The Catholic Institute’s focus is faith formation of adults for working in the parishes throughout the Diocese. It will offer a diploma program that will mirror content classes in the graduate program. Any parishioner is eligible to take courses in this program, including those without a degree. Parishioners who subscribe to the Institute may take these courses at a discount.

In addition, parishes that subscribe to the Institute at a low fee are able to offer their parishioners access to more than 13,000 books and DVDs of the Anne Nevins Diocesan Library. Through a link on the Venice Diocese website, parishioners may peruse the on-line catalog, reserve a book, and have it sent to them free of charge. Then they may return the item to the book return outside the library or send it back for minimum book postage.

Background of the partnership started in 2014, when the Blessed Edmund Rice School for Pastoral Ministry changed it’s name to the Institute for Catholic Studies and Formation. At the same time, the 20 year relationship with Barry University ended. As a result, an introductory inquiry was put out to Franciscan University of Steubenville to determine interest in a partnership with the Institute in offering degree courses in the university’s Master of Arts in Catechetics and Evangelization program.

An invitation was extended to Kleinlein to meet with appropriate interested parties. In October 2014, she met with university officials, including Vice President of Academic Affairs Dr. Daniel Kempton, Chair of the Theology Department Fr. Dan Petit, Incoming Chair of the Theology Department Dr. Stephen Hildebrand, Vice President for Enrollment Joel Recznik, and Bob Rice who serves as head of the Master of Arts in Catechetics and Evangelization program. Rice had previously offered one of the courses in the Diocesan Certificate of Youth Outreach program. He vouched for the high caliber of instructors, the quality of the courses offered to the students and the welcoming nature of the Diocese to university participation in the Rice School programs.

Discussion centered in what the Institute did in the past to offer advanced courses. Between Nov. 2014 and July 2015, Franciscan University and the Diocese developed a partnership agreement.

Among the items agreed upon include:

* All students will register with FUS to determine eligibility for entrance into the Master of Arts in Catechetics and Evangelization program.
* The Institute will offer all required prerequisites.
* The Institute will also begin offering master’s level courses in the Master of Arts in Catechetics and Evangelization program in 2016.
* These courses will be at a steep discount from those offered on-line through Franciscan University.
* Prerequisite courses will begin in January 2016.

RITE OF ENROLLMENT

THIS SUNDAY 5:00PM MASS
FOR CHILDREN MAKING
FIRST RECONCILIATION
FIRST HOLY COMMUNION

When infant children are baptized, parents agree to raise their child Catholic. During the Rite of Baptism, parents agree to the baptismal promises for their child. At the age of reason, the church administers the Sacrament of Holy Communion because a child can talk and think for him or herself.

The Rite of Enrollment is declared publically in Church as a preparation for this Sacrament. During this Rite, the children will renew their own baptismal promises and will declare their own beliefs in church.

Guidelines for the Reception of Holy Communion
(Promulgated by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, Nov. 1996)

For Catholics
As Catholics, we fully participate in this celebration of the Eucharist when we receive Holy Communion. We are encouraged to receive Communion devoutly and frequently. In order to be properly disposed to receive Communion, participants should not be conscious of grave sin and normally should have fasted for one hour. A person who is conscious of grave sin is not to receive the Body and Blood of the Lord without prior sacramental confession except for a grave reason where there is no opportunity for confession. In this case, the person is to be mindful of the obligation to make an act of perfect contrition, including the intention of confessing as soon as possible (canon 916). A frequent reception of the Sacrament of Penance is encouraged for all.

For our fellow Christians
We welcome our fellow Christians to the celebration of this Eucharist as our brothers and sisters. We pray that our common baptism and the action of the Holy Spirit in the Eucharist will draw us closer to one another and begin to dispel the sad divisions which separate us. We pray that these will lessen and finally disappear, in keeping with Christ’s prayer for us “that they may all be one” (Jn 17:21). Because Catholics believe that the celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of the oneness of faith, life and worship, members of those churches with whom we are not yet fully united are ordinarily not admitted to Holy Communion. Eucharistic sharing in exceptional circumstances by other Christians requires prior permission according to the directives of the diocesan bishop and the provisions of church law.

For those not receiving Holy Communion
All who are not receiving Holy Communion are encouraged to express in their hearts a prayerful desire for unity with the Lord Jesus and with one another.

For non-Christians
We also welcome to this celebration those who do not share our faith in Jesus Christ. While we cannot admit them to Holy Communion, we ask them to offer their prayers for the peace and unity of the human family.

Welcoming the Migrant: Becoming a Sacrament of Unity
by Janet Diaz, D.Min. Dean Sacred Heart Major Seminary Institute for Ministry
"The presence, of so many people of so many different cultures and religions in so many different parts of the United States has challenged us as a Church to a profound conversion so that we can become truly a sacrament of unity" Every migration story is unique but a large percentage of the recent immigrants to the United States—they are Catholic.

Sacred Scripture: Migration Narratives and the Call to Love Migrants
"You shall not oppress a resident alien; you well know how it feels to be an alien, since you were once aliens yourselves in the land of Egypt" (Ex 23:9). Salvation history abounds with migration stories. God called Abraham, the first of the Israel's patriarchs, to migrate to the land of Canaan (see Gn 11-12). The Jews were exiled to Babylon and then returned to the Promised Land. In the New Testament, the Holy Family became migrants when the angel instructed Joseph to flee to Egypt to escape Herod's brutal massacre of the Innocents (see Mt 2:13-15). During Jesus' earthly ministry, he himself lived as an itinerant preacher.

How do we care for migrants?
We are called to live out these truths by becoming genuine communities of welcome. Three themes are prominent in this regard: love of neighbor, hospitality, and our oneness in Christ.
♦ "You shall treat the alien who resides with you no differently than the natives born among you; you shall love the alien as yourself; for you too were once aliens in the land of Egypt" (Lv 19:34).
♦ Love God and, second, love neighbor (see Mt 22:37-40, Mk 12:30-31).
♦ Abraham models servant hospitality. "Let me bring you a little food, that you may refresh yourselves" (Gn 18:4-5).
♦ "Let mutual love continue. Do not neglect hospitality, for through it some have unknowingly entertained angels" (Heb 13:1-2).
♦ No one is excluded from the promises of God: "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free person, there is not male and female; for you all are one in Christ Jesus" (Gal 3:28).

“Safeguarding the Human Dignity of Migrants within a "Church without Frontiers"
"The divine image is present in every man" (Catechism of the Catholic Church [CCC], 2nd ed. [Washington, DC: Libreria Editrice Vaticana (LEV)– USCCB, 2000], no. 1702). Pope Francis reminds us that our solidarity with these brothers and sisters, many of whom are poor both economically and in spirit, calls us to recognize Jesus' suffering in the migrants' suffering: "It is essential to draw near to new forms of poverty and vulnerability, in which we are called to recognize the suffering Christ... Migrants present a particular challenge for me, since I am the pastor of a Church without frontiers, a Church which considers herself mother to all. For this reason, I exhort all countries to a generous openness which, rather than fearing the loss of local identity, will prove capable of creating new forms of cultural synthesis"

Pope Francis, Apostolic Exhortation Evangelii Gaudium .

This exhortation to loving openness applies not only to countries but also to our parish communities.

Prayer for Safety In Hurricane Season
O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude. You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.
