TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

LOOKING BEYOND OURSELVES

The message found in today’s readings is an oft-told story. Citizen Kane, Daddy Warbucks, and King Midas are only a few of the familiar fictional characters who thought enormous wealth could buy happiness and fulfillment. Daddy Warbucks admitted stepping on a few people in his climb to the top. Kane tried to buy the printed word and stardom for his young wife, while King Midas conjured immense wealth and tragedy by his very touch.

We learn clearly in today’s readings that none of this is really possible. True happiness comes from caring for someone other than ourselves. It comes from the pursuit of the virtues Paul described to Timothy: faith, love, gentleness, godliness, righteousness, and endurance. The Gospel reminds us that we dare not ignore the needs of others, acting as though we don’t notice their suffering. God’s call to us is much too clear to disregard for even one more day.
Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time
September 25, 2016

Keep the commandment without stain or reproach until the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ.
— 1 Timothy 6:14

This Sunday's Readings:

First Reading
Amos 6:1,4-7
God will judge the complacency of the people and their leaders.

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 146:7-10
Happy are those who find solace in God, the help of the poor.

Second Reading
1 Timothy 6:11-16
Paul exhorts Timothy to stay faithful to God in all things.

Gospel Reading
Luke 16:19-31
Jesus tells the parable of the reversal of fortunes between the rich man and the poor man, Lazarus.

Background on the Gospel Reading
A major theme in the Gospel of Luke is the importance of the care of the poor in the life of discipleship. In the parable found in today's Gospel, Jesus contrasts the life of a rich man and the poor man, Lazarus, who lives in the shadow of the rich man and his wealth. Both die. Lazarus finds himself in heaven; the rich man in the netherworld. The rich man asks for assistance from Lazarus in his torment. But Abraham reminds the rich man of the good things he had in his life and describes the current situation as a reversal of fortunes. The rich man then asks that Lazarus be sent to warn his family, but this is denied with the reminder that Moses and the prophets have warned of judgment for those who neglect the care of the poor.

In the context of Luke's Gospel, this parable, delivered in the presence of a crowd of listeners, is part of Jesus' response to some Pharisees. These Pharisees are described in Luke's Gospel as “loving money.” (Note: The Pharisees were followers active before, during, and after Jesus' lifetime. They taught an oral interpretation of the Law of Moses as the basis for popular Jewish piety. They put less emphasis on Temple worship and more on applying the law to everyday life. Though they are often portrayed negatively in the Gospels, they shared many of Jesus’ and the early Church’s concerns about the law.) Jesus observed that the actions of some Pharisees betrayed misplaced priorities: they spoke one way, but acted in another. The story of the rich man and Lazarus demonstrates the importance of the care of the poor and is a reminder to those who would follow Jesus of the unimportance of wealth in the eyes of God.

CONFESSIONS - Saturdays 2:15-3:15 or 30 min. before Sunday Masses or by appointment.

REMEMBER IN YOUR PRAYERS......all those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith, Eleanor Bond, Jim Allen.

The Value of Religion
1 Timothy 6:11-16, Amos 6:1a and 4-7, Luke 16:19-31
For Sunday, September 25, 2016, 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

What contribution does the practice of religion make to our society?
Many would say that it provides a moral code that inspires people to look beyond themselves to the needs of others. Others might argue that faith provides meaning to those who might otherwise despair over the challenges of life. Still others might argue that faith does no good at all but only creates divisions that perpetuate strife and violence.

A new study seeks to put a price tag on the contribution of religion to the economy as a whole. It estimates that the goods and services provided by churches, synagogues, mosques, and other faith-based communities totals 1.2 trillion dollars. Putting that staggering figure in perspective, Christopher White, in an article posted on Crux, writes, “Impressively, this figure is more than the top ten tech companies combined—including Google, Apple, and Microsoft. Or, put in another perspective, if that figure was measured in GDP, U.S. religion would be the 15th largest national economy in the world.”

Faith-based charities provide an enormous service to those who would otherwise not be served by government programs. This would include not only congregations but faith-based institutions such as the Knights of Columbus whose nearly two million members provide relief to the poor members of their communities. It would also include parish-based groups such as the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, which serves the poor after the example of their founder, Blessed Frédéric Ozanam.

On a larger scale, Catholic Charities provides disaster relief and resources to lift people out of poverty. Catholic schools educate children of all faiths, many of whom are poor, preparing them to be more productive citizens. Some twenty percent of all hospitals in the United States are Catholic Health Care Facilities reaching underserved communities and providing free services to those who would otherwise go without.

As people of faith, not only should we feel proud of the accomplishments of our brothers and sisters, we should also not be ashamed to tell the world about it. Though the tax exempt status of religious groups and nonprofits is always being challenged, we can confidently assert that society receives much more in goods and services from people of faith than it would if it were to tax our institutions out of existence.

Furthermore, when the government seeks to force groups like the Little Sisters of the Poor to use their resources to fight off burdens to their religious liberty such as the HHS mandate, it diverts time, energy, and money that could be better used to assist those who are suffering.

As Pope Francis reminds us, “The Church is not an NGO.” Our ultimate value is not in the goods and services we provide but in our witness to Jesus Christ. All the good works that flow from faith are a response to Jesus’ call to serve the poor, as we hear in today’s readings. Though we might be able to put a dollar value on the goods and services provided by people of faith, the witness to the love of God made visible in Jesus Christ is beyond measure.

Douglas Sousa, STL
THIS FALL, from September 28 to November 6, our community is uniting with hundreds of other cities around the world for the largest and longest coordinated pro-life mobilization in history: the 40 Days for Life campaign. Recognizing that “with God all things are possible,” people of faith are praying that this effort will help bring an end to the tragedy of abortion.

40 Days for Life is a focused pro-life campaign that has already mobilized over 700,000 people worldwide, saved over 11,700 lives from abortion, led to the conversion of 133 abortion workers, and seen 73 abortion facilities close. 40 Days for Life is made up of three components:

- Prayer and Fasting: believers throughout our city are invited to join together for 40 days of fervent prayer and fasting for an end to abortion.
- Peaceful Vigil: stand for life during a 40-day peaceful public witness outside the Planned Parenthood in Fort Myers located at the corner of Winkler Rd and College Pkwy.
- Community Outreach: help take a positive, upbeat pro-life message to every corner of our city through media efforts, advocacy, and public visibility.

Learn how you can speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves here in Fort Myers by contacting Rick at 239-994-2849 or by visiting:

Resurrection Parish’s Schedule for 40 Days for Life, Week 1

Wednesday, Sept. 28: Kickoff - day 1
6:30 pm Mass at Church of the Resurrection will be celebrated by Father Toner, with Deacon David Reardon as homilist. This Mass for all 40 Days participants of Lee County will be followed by a 7:15 prayerful candlelight vigil on the sidewalk of Planned Parenthood, 8595 College Pkwy at Winkler Road.

Friday, Sept. 30: day 3
Our parishioners will be praying and carrying signs on the sidewalk at Planned Parenthood between 8:30 am and 4:30 pm, at the hours for which we have signed up.
Or just come pray at any hour to support and save babies in the womb, who have no voice or choice.

Monday, October 3: day 6
Bishop Dewane’s Mass and Prayer Walk for Life: His 9:00 Mass at St. St. Cecilia Church will be followed by a procession from Viva parking lot, 5990 Winkler Road, to Planned Parenthood sidewalk to pray the rosary with him. (See Prayer Walk flyer).
Those of you who cannot go to the sidewalk, please plan to stay at St. Cecilia Church for exposition and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Closing Benediction for all will be at 11:45 am at the church.

“A Nation That Kills Its Own Children Is a Nation Without Hope.”

Mark Your Calendars!
Annual Women’s Guild Craft Bazaar
October 28th and 29th

We are getting closer to the cooler weather and that can only mean it is time for the Annual Craft Bazaar. So mark your calendars and start looking forward to this great event. Whether you are a crafter, baker, volunteer or have some gently used items to donate, we welcome you all. Donations of hand crafted items, used books, dvds, cds, puzzles, jewelry, craft supplies and other cherished items can be dropped off at the Parish Center.

Keep in mind we will be having the popular bake sale at the bazaar too! So, all of you home chefs, plan on donating your favorite goodies. Looking for some fun? Join our crafters on Tuesday mornings at 8:30am for chit chat, coffee and crafts. You don’t have to be a Martha Stewart to enjoy creating items for the bazaar. Whether you donate, create, volunteer or shop you will be helping the Women’s Guild support their charitable works.
