TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

DEPENDING ON GOD

“Getting by with a little help from our friends” is not an idea that began with the Beatles. Certainly the idea of “getting by with a little help from God” goes back at least to the first reading today from Exodus. How we get that help, however, is the key to this weekend’s scriptures.

No matter how inadequate Moses felt to the task God had given him, he persevered—even though he needed help from the people around him. The Israelites especially depended on God for freedom. The woman in the Gospel, desperate and destitute, had no one to depend on, but still she would not give up. She could not afford to bribe the unscrupulous judge, but she pestered him into weariness until finally he met her demands.

We sometimes need to turn to others to help us through difficult times; but if we always turn to God, we won’t be disappointed, for our help, the psalm assures us, is from the Lord.
I lift up my eyes toward the mountains; whence shall help come to me? My help is from the LORD, who made heaven and earth. — Psalm 121

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time
In the Gospel today Jesus tells his disciples to pray always without becoming weary, indeed our prayer must always be an expression of our love for God, our family, our world, and especially for the suffering poor. As you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box, please say a special prayer for the poor who have no one to pray for them.

PLEASE JOIN US FOR ADORATION EVERY FIRST FRIDAY AFTER THE 8:00 MASS
All are welcome and encouraged to attend.

Altar Servers Needed—please call parish office for more information if interested.

Ushers Needed—please call parish office for more information if interested.

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Cycle C
Sunday, October 16, 2016

This Sunday’s Readings:

First Reading
Exodus 17:8-13
Joshua and the Israelites defeat Amalek with the help of God and his servant, Moses.

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 121:1-2,3-4,5-6,7-8
The Lord is the Guardian of Israel.

Second Reading
2 Timothy 3:14—4:2
Paul exhorts Timothy to continue to preach the word Timothy received from his teachers.

Gospel Reading
Luke 18:1-8
Jesus urges his disciples to pray and not lose heart, for God hears and answers prayers.

Background on the Gospel Reading
This is the first of two parables that Jesus tells in Luke 18 about prayer. (The second will be read at Mass next Sunday.) This first parable is a lesson in persistence in prayer. (Next Sunday's parable will address attitude in prayer.) While the parable seems to present prayer as nagging God for what we want, such a reading misses the point. God is not like the judge in the parable, worn down by requests and coerced to respond. The key is found in the description of the judge as corrupt and unjust. Since God can be neither, we must understand Jesus to be saying that if even an unjust judge responds to the persistence of the widow, how much more so will God listen to our prayers. God truly wants us to be like the persistent widow, staying in relationship with God, confident that God hears and answers prayers. Then Jesus laments, “Will such faith be found when the Son of Man comes?” In this lament, Jesus notes how easy it can be for us to lose heart.
Calling All Moms...
You are invited to share in a Catholic ministry for mothers!

Come and See!

Just as the body’s immune system is strengthened by proper care (diet, exercise, handling stress, taking supplements), our spiritual wellness relies on balance and harmony. Without that balance we can find ourselves settling for less and striving for more.

Spiritual wellness enables us to find “the more” that we seek.

Women’s Guild News

To our ladies of the parish, come and share in some Halloween treats at the Women’s Guild meeting on Wednesday, Oct. 19th, at the Parish Center following the 8:00 am Mass. Our guest speaker will be Gary Ingold, CEO from the Community Pregnancy Clinics.

We are approaching the time for our Annual Craft Bazaar on October 28th and 29th. Hopefully all parishioners will plan on attending, donating or working this annual event. The Coffee Café will be open at 8:30 for your morning dose of caffeine and some sweet treats. Lunch will also be offered for a bargain price of $4.00.

Please come and join the Guild for our next meeting and some social time.

You Did It for Me

Samundra Regmi, 11, holds a 3-day-old baby goat. He and his family are one of the many families who were affected by the Nepal earthquake that struck last April. The 7.8 earthquake destroyed more than 100,000 homes, up-rooting life for families in both urban Kathmandu and remote mountain villages. Thanks to Catholic Relief Service and Caritas, families have been rebuilding their lives since day one.

2016 Verity Gala

Our Speaker...

Former abortionist Dr. Anthony Levatino shares his unique perspective about why a physician who has been trained to give life would take it away. His conversion to pro-life has educated and motivated audiences worldwide. From selfish motives to true understanding, Dr. Levatino discusses what it was like to perform abortions and the toll it took on his family until a personal tragedy occurred.

Prior to his involvement in the pro-life movement, Dr. Levatino performed both first and second trimester abortions as part of his OB-GYN practice in upstate New York. “I was morally neutral and believed that I had an obligation to offer complete care to my patients.” states Dr. Levatino.

His story, combined with practical advice on what the pro-life community can do to increase their effectiveness, has made him a popular international speaker.

Join us for an evening to celebrate LIFE.

Many in our culture believe that being pro-life is about taking rights away from a woman. Nothing could be further from the truth. Not only did Jesus say that He came to “give life, and give it abundantly” (John 10:10), but He ordained Verity to be part of the solution for these women, their families and for our community! On October 20th, we will gather to celebrate the LIFE of the unborn and the abundant LIFE offered in Jesus Christ. That life is colorful and joyful, and we want YOU to be a part of the celebration! Our primary goal for the evening is about making Verity financially strong so that as these young women and their families come, we will be well prepared to help them as they face their unplanned pregnancy.

A financial appeal will be made.

There is no cost to attend this event, but a reservation is required. Call our office at 239-433-1929, send us an email areci@veritypmc.com or register online at www.veritypmc.com/gala-2016/

PROCEEDS TO CHARITY
October: The Month of the Holy Rosary

Source: Seton Magazine, SetonMagazine.com

by Marlicia Fernandez

Marlicia homeschooled her two children with Seton for fourteen years in Europe and in the USA. She has a BS in Special Education with concentrations in music and in psychology. Marlicia works for Seton in Special Services and Grading.

“The month of October each year is dedicated to the Most Holy Rosary. This is primarily due to the fact that the liturgical feast of Our Lady of the Rosary is celebrated annually on October 7th. It was instituted to honor the Blessed Virgin Mary in gratitude for the protection that she gives the Church in answer to the praying of the Rosary by the faithful.” (Rev. Matthew R. Mauriello, Source: Catholic.net)

According to Catholic tradition and history St. Dominic received the Holy Rosary directly from the Blessed Virgin in 1206. He had been praying and doing penances because of his failure to defeat the Albigensian heresy. Mary appeared and consoled and encouraged him. She also gave him a mighty weapon, the Rosary. Because this was a new way of praying, our Blessed Lady taught him how to say the rosary and asked him to preach this devotion and to teach others to pray it as well. Since that time many victories, both personal and public, have been credited to the recitation of and meditation on the Holy Rosary.

The power of the Rosary is not contested by most Catholics. We love this gift given to us by our Mother, Mary. Despite this, it is a prayer that sometimes gets lost in the shuffle or pushed to one side. We may tell ourselves that it takes too much time...but it really doesn’t, if we break it down. If five decades all at once is too difficult to fit into the day, maybe try praying one at a time. One decade of the rosary takes about 5-8 minutes to say reverently. Almost everyone can find 5-8 minutes and as one priest told us from the pulpit, “It’s not ideal, but if necessary, mute the sound during the commercials while you watch TV and say your rosary.” (Paraphrased). Because the rosary is such a powerful prayer, obstacles will crop up to prevent us from saying it. It’s a beautiful, meditative prayer but because it is by design repetitious, we may find ourselves becoming distracted as we pray. We start out focusing on one of the mysteries only to be sidetracked by what we will make for dinner, how we’re going to pay this or that bill, or who will drive Susie or Billy to the dentist or choir practice. Sometimes our minds just wander in spite of our love for the devotion and for Our Lord and Our Lady.

We were discussing this while I was on retreat and a friend of mine suggested an interesting way to refocus wandering minds and attention while praying the Rosary. At first I was a little skeptical because I thought it would become rote, but then I tried it and it worked! This is what she does. Since our minds tend to wander when we reach the Hail Mary’s she would insert a reminder after “…of thy womb, Jesus.” For example, if she were saying the fourth sorrowful mystery and her mind wandered she would say something like:

“Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with Thee. Blessed art Thou among women and blessed is the fruit of Thy womb, Jesus (baptized in the river-Jordan). Holy Mary…amen.”

I hope this will be of help to anyone who may find it difficult to concentrate or meditate on the mysteries of the Holy Rosary (and would love to hear other suggestions to help us say this wonderful prayer more attentively). It has proven to be a powerful weapon and aid in the past. I’m certain it can be again if we only make use of it.

How Does the Church Help Catholics to Address Political and Social Questions?

A Well-Formed Conscience

The Church equips its members to address political questions by helping them develop well-formed consciences. “Conscience is a judgment of reason whereby the human person recognizes the moral quality of a concrete act… [Every person] is obliged to follow faithfully what he [or she] knows to be just and right” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 1178).

We Catholics have a lifelong obligation to form our consciences in accord with human reason, enlightened by the teaching of Christ.

The Virtue of Prudence

The Church also encourages Catholics to develop the virtue of prudence, which enables us “to discern our true good in every circumstance and to choose the right means of achieving it” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 1806). Prudence shapes and informs our ability to deliberate over available alternatives, to determine what is most fitting to a specific context, and to act. Prudence must be accompanied by courage which calls us to act. As Catholics seek to advance the common good, we must carefully discern which public policies are morally sound. A good end does not justify immoral means.

As Catholics we are not single-issue voters. A candidate’s position on a single issue is not sufficient to guarantee a voter’s support. Yet a candidate’s position on a single issue that involves an intrinsic evil, such as support for legal abortion or the promotion of racism, may legitimately lead a voter to disqualify a candidate from receiving support.

Opposition to intrinsically evil acts also prompts us to recognize our positive duty to contribute to the common good and act in solidarity with those in need. Both opposing evil and doing good are essential. As Pope John Paul II said, “the fact that only the negative commandments oblige always and under all circumstances does not mean that in the moral life prohibitions are more important than the obligation to do good indicated by the positive commandment” (Encyclical Veritatis Splendor, no. 52). The basic right to life implies and is linked to other human rights to the goods that every person needs to live and thrive—including food, shelter, health care, education, and meaningful work. The use of the death penalty, hunger, lack of health care or housing, human trafficking, the human and moral costs of war, and unjust immigration policies are some of the serious moral issues that challenge our consciences and require us to act.

Making Moral Choices

Difficult political decisions require the exercise of a well-formed conscience aided by prudence. This exercise of conscience begins with always opposing policies that violate human life or weaken its protection. “Those who formulate law therefore have an obligation in conscience to work toward correcting morally defective laws, lest they be guilty of cooperating in evil and in sinning against the common good” (USCCB, Catholics in Political Life). When morally flawed laws already exist, prudential judgment is needed to determine how to do what is possible to restore justice—even if partially or gradually—without ever abandoning a moral commitment to full protection for all human life from conception to natural death (see Pope John Paul II, Encyclical Evangelium Vitae, no. 73). Prudential judgment is also needed to determine the best way to promote the common good in areas such as housing, health care, and immigration. When Church leaders make judgments about how to apply Catholic teaching to specific policies, this may not carry the same binding authority as universal moral principles but cannot be dismissed as one political opinion among others. These moral applications should inform the consciences and guide the actions of Catholics.
