GOD IS WITH US

The book of Wisdom tells us that the spirit of God is in all things. What a wonderful thought, and what a wonderful image to keep in front of us as we travel down life’s road. For if the path is revealed in the treading, it’s good to know that God is with us—and all around us—every step of the way.

But Paul knows that this divine presence is not timid. Instead, God calls out to us, and Paul prays that we, along with the Thessalonians, might be made worthy of that call. And who knows more about God’s call than Zacchaeus, the tax collector? Jesus called him out of a tree, for goodness’ sake. Or perhaps more correctly, as we reflect upon the end of today’s Gospel reading, for heaven’s sake.

ALL are welcome!

“All parishioners and friends are invited to this beautiful inspiring time of prayer for those who desire with all our hearts to save the holy innocents threatened with death in their mother’s womb. It is the final day of 40 Days for Life, but our hope and determination lives on.”

We are very grateful for our parishioners who have faithfully come to pray throughout these 40 days.

SPIRITUALLY ADOPT

I will commit to pray this prayer every day for 9 months from now until Christmas:

Jesus, Mary and Joseph,
I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.

Month of the Holy Rosary

Praying the Rosary for the Election
by Deal W. Hudson
for Crisis Magazine
http://www.crisismagazine.com/2008/praying-the-rosary-for-the-election

“I would exhort people to say the rosary every day, for life and for the success of the election.” These are the words of Anthony Cardinal Bevilacqua, the retired archbishop of Philadelphia. When I spoke to him yesterday, the cardinal emphasized that he neither spoke officially for the archdiocese nor was he endorsing any specific candidate.

“I am speaking as an individual person, an individual cardinal, who believes very strongly in the importance of praying for the good of our Church and our people in this election.” Cardinal Bevilacqua told me it was a mistake, in his opinion, for any priest to endorse a candidate, because people will always identify that priest with the Catholic Church. “This I cannot do — we have to respect the separation of Church and state.”

Cardinal Bevilacqua and I spoke on the eve of the Feast of the Holy Rosary. St. Pius V introduced this observance after the defeat of the Turks at the Battle of Lepanto on October 7, 1571. That day in St. Peter’s Square, a rosary procession was held on behalf of the Holy League’s fleet, which was facing Muslim invasion in the Gulf of Patras off the western coast of Greece. The Holy League’s victory saved Europe from subjugation to Muslim power.

As the cardinal puts it, “This feast brings back the power of the rosary and how the Church has strongly advocated its use for any good cause, whether personal, national, or international.” For centuries the rosary has been identified with the military victory at Lepanto, but it has now become identified with the pro-life movement. “Once the rosary was used for Lepanto, today we must emphasize its use for protecting life. Many times when I have marched in groups on abortion clinics, we have prayed the rosary along the way — when people think of life, they should think of the rosary,” he said.

Other Catholic leaders have asked that Catholics pray the rosary daily before the election, which is now less than a month away. Rev. Thomas Euteneuer, president of Human Life International, writes about the rosary as a “spiritual weapon” that “batters the gates of hell.” Rev. Frank Pavone, president of Priests for Life, explained it this way:

The rosary has been a powerful tool for the victory of good throughout the centuries. It has defeated heresies and paved the way for a civilization of love based on the Gospel. This is precisely the struggle that this election represents, and the rosary is precisely the right tool. By praying it, believers can awaken the consciences of voters to realize that everything, including the voting booth, is under God’s dominion.

Cardinal Bevilacqua made the same point: “We can turn the people against abortion and for life by prayer. People have come into the pro-life cause because of the rosary.” He added that the rosary also strengthens those who work to defend life: “Many times people are mocked and abused for taking a position that is not very popular. It requires courage to defend life, and the rosary strengthens those people.”

At the conclusion of his recent pastoral letter, Bishop Joseph Francis Martino of Scranton wrote about the importance of seeking strength from the rosary:

October is traditionally the month of the rosary. Let us pray the rosary for the strength and fortitude to uphold the truths of our faith and the requirements of our law to all who deny them. And, let us ask Our Lady to bless our nation and the weakest among us. May Mary, the mother of Jesus, the Lord of Life, pray for us.

Prayer Before An Election
From the USCCB

Lord God, as the election approaches, we seek to better understand the issues and concerns that confront our city/state/country, and how the Gospel compels us to respond as faithful citizens in our community. We ask for eyes that are free from blindness so that we might see each other as brothers and sisters, one and equal in dignity, especially those who are victims of abuse and violence, deceit and poverty. We ask for ears that will hear the cries of children unborn and those abandoned, men and women oppressed because of race or creed, religion or gender. We ask for minds and hearts that are open to hearing the voice of leaders who will bring us closer to your Kingdom.

We pray for discernment so that we may choose leaders who hear your Word, live your love, and keep in the ways of your truth as they follow in the steps of Jesus and his Apostles and guide us to your Kingdom of justice and peace.

We ask this in the name of your Son Jesus Christ and through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
Catholic Charities, Clare House, in Fort Myers offers an afterschool program for underprivileged children in elementary school. Each year, RYM delivers a full Thanksgiving dinner to each of the families. It’s a great experience for the teens to meet the families and personally give them the dinners.

On Monday, November 21st we will deliver the dinners, enjoy cake with the children, sing songs, and celebrate the Thanksgiving holiday. They look forward to seeing us and count on us for their Thanksgiving dinners!

Would you kindly help us with any of the following donations:

* FROZEN TURKEY
* Rice * stuffing mix * cranberry sauce * potatoes
* canned sweet potatoes * corn muffin mix * canned veggies, * gravy * sweets/desserts

If it’s more convenient to make a monetary donation, we’ll grocery shop for you!

No amount of help is too big or too small!

Please drop off your donations at the Parish Center
no later than Tuesday, November 15th.

And do not neglect doing good and sharing; for with such sacrifices God is pleased. –Hebrews 13:16

2. CHOICE IN EDUCATION: Expanding existing scholarship programs to allow parents to select the best educational opportunities for their school-aged children?

3. CONSUMER PROTECTION: Establishing a maximum 30% annual percentage rate (APR) that payday lenders can charge?

4. DEATH PENALTY REPEAL: Ending Florida’s use of the death penalty while preserving the alternative of a life sentence without parole?

5. FREEDOM OF RELIGION: Respecting First Amendment freedoms of individuals and organizations so they may continue to operate in accord with moral beliefs related to life, sexuality and marriage?

6. HUMAN TRAFFICKING PREVENTION: Regulating recruiters of foreign workers to reduce labor trafficking?

7. JUVENILE INDICTMENT MINIMUM: Ensuring that children under the age of fourteen cannot be tried as adults?

8. PHYSICIAN-ASSISTED SUICIDE PREVENTION: Preserving Florida law that bans doctor-prescribed suicide?
Know the Positions of the Presidential Candidates

In keeping with its mission, the Florida Conference of Catholic Bishops (FCCB) aims to educate and inform Catholics about a wide range of issues. The information listed here has been compiled from policies, public statements, official and campaign websites and other resources to help voters form their consciences before entering the voting booth. The issues that appear here do not represent a complete list of issues that may be of importance to Catholics. The FCCB neither supports nor opposes any candidate for public office.

“The right to life implies and is linked to other human rights—to the basic goods that every human person needs to live and thrive. All the life issues are connected, for erosion of respect for the life of any individual or group in society necessarily diminishes respect for all life. The moral imperative to respond to the needs of our neighbors—basic needs such as food, shelter, health care, education, and meaningful work—is universally binding on our consciences and may be legitimately fulfilled by a variety of means. Catholics must seek the best ways to respond to these needs....Above all, the common outcry, which is justly made on behalf of human rights— for example, the right to health, to home, to work, to family, to culture—is false and illusory if the right to life, the most basic and fundamental right and the condition for all other personal rights, is not defended with maximum determination.”

(From “Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, Nos. 25, 26,” U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, 2015)

DEMOCRAT

Hillary Clinton

ABORTION

“I believe we need to protect access to safe and legal abortion, not just in principle but in practice,” Clinton said at a rally in January.

Clinton supports the repeal of the Hyde Amendment and the Democratic Party Platform states, “We will continue to oppose—and seek to overturn—federal and state laws and policies that impede a woman’s access to abortion, including by repealing the Hyde Amendment.” The Hyde Amendment restricts the use of federal funds to pay for abortions.

DEATH PENALTY

During a February 2016 debate, Clinton said regarding the death penalty, “I do for very limited, particularly heinous crimes, believe it is an appropriate punishment, but I deeply disagree with the way that too many states still are implementing it.”

In 2011, Trump said he is “very much in favor of the death penalty.”

DOCTOR PRESCRIBED SUICIDE

During a February Town Hall Meeting, Clinton said doctor prescribed suicide “is a crucial issue that people deserve to understand from their own ethical, religious, faith-based perspective...I want as president to try to catalyze that debate.” The Democratic Party Platform makes no mention of doctor prescribed suicide.

No statement by Trump on this issue could be found, but the Republican Party Platform states, “We oppose euthanasia and assisted suicide.”

EDUCATIONAL CHOICE

In 2007, Clinton said, “I’ll tell you why I won’t support vouchers. Number one, I don’t think they’re constitutional. But number two, I don’t see how you would implement them without having a lot of people getting vouchers for schools that would be teaching things antithetical to American values.”

In his book The America We Deserve (2000), Trump wrote, “we’ve got to bring on the competition—open the schoolhouse doors and let parents choose the best school for their children. Education reformers call this school choice, charter schools, vouchers, even opportunity scholarships. I call it competition—the American way.”

These comments, policies and statements are snapshots from each candidate’s public career, campaigns and websites as of August 2016. For embedded links to these resources, visit www.facb.org. The candidates also represent the platforms of their political parties, which can be viewed at www.democrats.org and www.gop.com. <td>ENVIRONMENTAL RESPONSIBILITY</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Clinton’s campaign website states that her energy “plan is designed to deliver on the pledge President Obama made at the Paris climate conference” where over 190 countries agreed to reduce global greenhouse gas emissions and meet existing financial commitments to an international climate fund.</td>
<td>During a May 2016 policy address on energy, Trump said that in his first 100 days in office, “we’re going to cancel the Paris Climate Agreement and stop all payments of U.S. tax dollars to U.N. global warming programs.”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>FREEDOM OF RELIGION</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Clinton described the First Amendment Defense Act as “taxpayer-funded discrimination by those who cite religion as a reason to deny services to LGBT people nationwide.” The First Amendment Defense Act would protect against adverse federal actions directed toward individuals and organizations whose religious beliefs and moral convictions indicate that marriage is between one man and one woman.</td>
<td>In a December 2015 letter Trump wrote, “If Congress considers the First Amendment Defense Act a priority, then I will do all I can to make sure it comes to my desk for signature and enactment.”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HEALTH CARE ACCESS FOR THE UNINSURED</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>According to her website, Clinton will “defend the Affordable Care Act and build on it to slow the growth of out-of-pocket costs.” Her plan would also provide health insurance for the lowest-income Americans by incentivizing states to expand Medicaid and enroll people through Medicaid and the Affordable Care Act easier.</td>
<td>According to his website, Trump “will ask Congress to immediately deliver a full repeal of Obamacare.” He also said, “As we allow the free market to provide insurance coverage opportunities to companies and individuals, we must also make sure that no one slips through the cracks simply because they cannot afford insurance. We must review basic options for Medicaid and work with states to ensure that those who want healthcare coverage can have it.”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>IMMIGRATION</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>According to her website, Clinton will “introduce comprehensive immigration reform with a pathway to full and equal citizenship within her first 100 days in office.” She will “defend President Obama’s executive actions” to provide deportation relief for DREAMers and parents of citizens and lawful residents; end family detention and close private immigrant detention centers and “promote naturalization.”</td>
<td>According to his website, Trump will build a wall across the southern border, paid for by Mexico. To defend the immigration laws, Trump proposes to triple the number of ICE officers (currently 5,000); create a nationwide e-verify to “protect jobs for unemployed Americans”; return “criminal aliens” to their home countries; detain “illegal aliens” at the border until they are returned to their home countries; defund “sanctuary cities”; enhance penalties for overstaying a visa; cooperate with local gang task forces and end birthright citizenship.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>INTERNATIONAL SECURITY</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>According to her website, Clinton will defeat ISIS by “intensifying the coalition air campaign against ISIS fighters, leaders, and infrastructure; stepping up support for local Arab and Kurdish forces on the ground and coalition efforts to protect civilians; and pursuing a diplomatic strategy aimed at resolving Syria’s civil war and Iraq’s sectarian conflict between Sunnis and Shiitas—both of which have contributed to the rise of ISIS.”</td>
<td>Trump said he would bring about the defeat of ISIS by destroying the source of its funding, oil and banks that funnel money to the organization. “The oil… the oil that ISIS is pumping, where they’re getting tremendous amounts of revenue. I’ve said, hit the banking channels. You know, they have very sophisticated banking channels… they’re taking in tremendous amounts of money from banking channels.”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>MARRIAGE</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>In response to the Supreme Court’s decision to strike down state laws defining marriage as between one man and one woman, Clinton tweeted, “Proud to celebrate a historic victory for marriage equality.”</td>
<td>In 2015, Trump said, “I’m (for) traditional marriage.”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>POVERTY</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>In 2013 while members of Congress were debating the details of the Farm Bill, Clinton tweeted, “What happens to kids in families cut from unemployment insurance &amp; food stamps? They’re #2SmallToFail, &amp; deserve an equal chance to succeed.”</td>
<td>In a June 2015 interview, Trump said, “We have to create incentives that they actually do much better by working. Right now, they have a disincentive, they have an incentive not to work.” When asked if he would insist people work for food stamps and other welfare assistance, Trump said, “Well, you could - you could start looking at things like that... The problem we have right now, we have a society that sits back and says we’re not going to do anything. And eventually the 50 percent can’t carry it, and it’s unfair to them, but cannot carry the other 50 percent.”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>REFUGEES DISPLACED BY TERRORISM</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Clinton said the U.S. should do more to help Syrian refugees. “We’re facing the worst refugee crisis since the end of World War II… I think the United States has to do more, and I’d like to see us move from where we are a good start with 10,000 to 65,000 [refugees permitted in the U.S.]”</td>
<td>Trump said regarding refugees, “It is a very, very disturbing thing that’s going on in Europe. And we’re going to have it over here, too. And they just can’t do what they’re doing... We’re not going to keep them here. They’re going back.”</td>
