Fourth Sunday of Advent, Cycle A
Sunday, December 18, 2016

This Sunday’s Readings:

First Reading
Isaiah 7:10-14
Ahaz proclaims the sign that the Lord will give: a virgin shall give birth to a son, Emmanuel.

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 24:1-2,3-4,5-6
The Lord is the King of Glory who established the earth.

Second Reading
Romans 1:1-7
Paul greets the community at Rome and declares himself a servant of Christ Jesus.

Gospel Reading
Matthew 1:18-24
An angel appears to Joseph, directing him to take Mary as his wife and telling him that the child she will bear will be called Emmanuel.

Background on the Gospel Reading
Finally, on this the Fourth Sunday of Advent, our Gospel Reading permits us to begin our contemplation of the mystery of the Incarnation we celebrate at Christmas: “Now this is how the birth of Jesus Christ came about” (Matthew 1:18). The Gospel of Matthew tells the story of the birth of Jesus from Joseph’s perspective. Today’s Gospel passage is the second movement in this story. In the preceding verses of the first chapter of Matthew’s Gospel, the Evangelist has listed the genealogy of Jesus, tracing his lineage through King David to Abraham. In the chapter to follow, Matthew tells of the visit from the Magi, the Holy Family’s flight into Egypt, and Herod’s massacre of the infants in Bethlehem. (The other stories which we associate with Christmas, the Annunciation, the Visitation, the angel and the shepherds, are found in the Gospel of Luke). We must not gloss over too quickly the difficult circumstances described in today’s Gospel. The way that Joseph and Mary face these circumstances tells us much about these holy people and their faith in God. Joseph and Mary are betrothed to be married. This is sometimes described as an engagement period, but it is more than that. Betrothal in first century Jewish culture was in fact the first part of the marriage contract. A breach of this contract was considered adultery. Mary is found to be with child. If adultery is proven, the punishment might be death. Joseph has rights under Mosaic law, but chooses to act discreetly in his plans to break the marriage contract, so as to protect Mary. Then God intervenes. The message of the angel of the Lord given to Joseph in his dream tells us much about the child that Mary bears and his role in God’s plan. He is conceived by the Holy Spirit. His name will be Jesus, which in the Hebrew means “Yahweh saves.” He will be the fulfillment of the prophecy heard in today’s first reading from Isaiah: “... The virgin shall be with child . . . and shall name him Emmanuel [God with us].” Joseph does as the angel of the Lord directs. He takes Mary to be his wife and accepts the child in her womb as his own. Joseph and Mary are both cooperative with God’s plan. They are both models for us of what it means to be faithful servants of God.

God bless and Merry Christmas, from the Parish poor and needy.

In today’s Gospel, we hear that Jesus will be named Emmanuel, which means “God is with us.” The mystery of the birth of Jesus is supremely a mystery of love. May each Christmas find us more and more like Him: More humble, more holy, happier and more full of God.
Raise Your Little Hand, O Holy Child

Isaiah 7:10-14, Matthew 1:18-24, Romans 1:1-7

For Sunday, December 18, 2016, 4th Sunday of Advent

“Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary your wife into your home. For it is through the Holy Spirit that this child has been conceived in her. She will bear a son and you are to name him Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins.” —Matthew 1:20b-21

Looking at the American landscape as the year draws to a close, you may wonder how we got here. The intense divisions, the harsh rhetoric, and the damaged relationships brought about by politics, racial tensions, and the news media can seem to be all too much. We made it through the Thanksgiving holiday, yet some of us apparently needed to call a special hotline set up to assist in the maneuvering through dinner conversations. Now with Advent quickly drawing to an end, the challenge will be before many of us whether or not we will greet the newborn King with love and reconciliation or something much less befitting a Savior. But if we take time to reflect on the message of this Fourth Sunday of Advent, perhaps we will find a pathway to peace.

Matthew’s Gospel tells us Joseph was afraid of taking Mary into his home since she was pregnant and they had not had relations. His plan was to divorce her quietly and move on. But an angel explained to him that Mary was carrying no ordinary child. She was going to give birth to a child conceived through the Spirit of God and he was to be named Jesus. In Hebrew, the name “Jesus” means “God saves.” In Hebrew theology, since only God can forgive sins, and since all sin is an affront to God, only God can save. In the naming of Mary’s child, the message is being sent that he is the Incarnation, the God-Man. The angel says this naming is important since Jesus will save his people from their sins. Who are his people?

The Gospel accounts explain that Jesus is not just the Messiah the Hebrews have awaited; He is also the Savior of all. God became man for all human beings. And humanity did not choose him, but he chose all humanity.

If we take the time to understand the implications of this, maybe it can help us see others in a different light. Who did Jesus come for over two thousand years ago? He came for Donald Trump and Hillary Clinton. He came for Americans and Russians. He came for those who have been hurt by crime. But he also came for those who committed those crimes. Sometimes we disregard too quickly the reality that Jesus was born to be the Savior of the entire world, not just those people with whom we agree or have the same vision of the world.

On this Fourth Sunday of Advent, let’s see if we can see others through God’s eyes instead of our own. But to do that, we must not fear bringing Jesus and his Mother into our home. Truly welcoming them means a profound shift in our view of those around us, those in leadership, and those whom we do not always understand. That can actually be scary and challenging. This does not mean healthy debate or disagreements should be washed away. But how can we hate or despise someone that Jesus came to save? Truly, our adversary is our brother or sister. Also, let us pray for our country. Let us pray for healing and reconciliation. We must not allow the birth of Jesus to become less meaningful in our lives by our unloving actions and words toward each other. St. John Paul II loved his homeland of Poland. He prayed for his country his entire life, especially when it was under Communist rule. His words from a 1975 Christmas homily sounds like an important sentiment for us all in the US today:

May this Christmas that we are celebrating increase the birth and presence of God in your souls and in all souls, in the soul of the whole nation, which prays to the infant Jesus: “Raise your little hand, O Holy Child, and bless our beloved homeland.”

Amen.

WOMEN’S GUILD NEWS

To the Ladies of the Parish:
The Guild will have a special Christmas breakfast at the Parish Center following the 8am Mass on Wednesday, December 21st. Our guest speaker will be Deacon Reardon with St. Luke’s message of the Nativity. Please call Joan at 432-0656 or Rosemary at 482-1526 to make a reservation. There is no charge but we are asking for a special Christmas donation for the St. Vincent DePaul Society. Bring a friend or house guest and share some Christmas time with us. We will have a 50/50 drawing and door prizes. Looking forward to wishing you a Merry Christmas in person.

All reservations must be made by noon on Monday, December 19, 2016.
OPLATKI WAFERS
AVAILABLE AT THE GIFT SHOP & PARISH OFFICE

The Christmas wafer (opłatek, plural opłatki) is a Central European Christian Christmas tradition celebrated in Polish families during Christmas Eve Vigil.

The unleavened wafers are baked from pure wheat flour and water, are usually rectangular in shape and very thin; they are identical in composition to a round wafer which becomes the Host after the Consecration during Mass in the Roman Catholic Church. Being only a reminder of the Body of Christ used in private homes, Opłatki lack sanctification by a priest or bishop. The Opłatki wafers are embossed with Christmas related religious images, varying from the nativity scene, especially Virgin Mary with baby Jesus to the Star of Bethlehem.

Cost is $3.00 for a pack of 5 wafers.
