Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

THE CHOSEN REMNANT
Zephaniah is one of the least-known of the Old Testament prophets. He speaks in today’s first reading of impending judgment. But the Lord will leave a “remnant” in Israel. This image of a remnant, or remainder, was to become vital to both Judaism and Christianity.

Paul’s letter to Corinth makes obvious his deep concern for the Christians there. They are too self-confident, he says, too sure of themselves. He admonishes them to remember that Christ has given them all they have.

Today’s Gospel comprises the opening of Jesus’ “Great Sermon.” As God gave Moses the law on Sinai, so now Jesus gathers his disciples on a hillside to teach them the new law. Each of these Beatitudes contrasts the humiliation of the present with the glory of the future: poverty vs. the riches of God’s kingdom, hunger for holiness vs. fulfillment in the Spirit, persecution vs. the reign of God. Jesus is here speaking to God’s chosen “remnant.”

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Cycle A
Sunday, January 29, 2017

This Sunday's Readings:

First Reading
Zephaniah 2:3, 3:12-13
There will be a people who remain sheltered from God's anger.

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 146:6-10
The Lord is faithful forever.

Second Reading
1 Corinthians 1:26-31
God chooses the weak to show his power.

Gospel Reading
Matthew 5:1-12a
Jesus teaches what it means to be happy.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's reading is the beginning of Jesus’ Sermon on the Mount, which is found in Matthew's Gospel. The form of the Beatitudes found here is not unique to Jesus. Beatitudes are found in the Old Testament, in the psalms, and in wisdom literature, for example. They are a way to teach about who will find favor with God.

We quickly note in this reading that the people whom Jesus calls “blessed” and “happy” are not people we think of as blessed or happy . . . the poor in spirit, the meek, the persecuted. This Gospel is one of reversals. Jesus' blueprint for happiness reflects little of what the world might call happiness. “Blessed” is sometimes translated as happy, fortunate, or favored. In other words, Jesus is saying that divine favor is upon those who are poor, those who mourn, those who are persecuted. This news might have been welcome—and surprising—to the crowds who heard Jesus that day.

The Beatitudes can be understood as a framework for Christian living. Our vocation as Christians is not to be first in this world, but rather to be first in the eyes of God. By referring to the good things that the faithful will experience, Matthew reminds us that those who act in the manner described in the Beatitudes will find their reward with God.
Saint Vincent de Paul Society is deeply honored to serve God’s poor. We are grateful for the kindness shown to us by Monsignor and the parish staff.

St. Vincent sees families here at Resurrection on Tuesdays and Thursdays. On Fridays and as needed we make home visits.

The needs of the poor are overwhelming! The greatest need at this time is rental assistance. This need may be due to job loss, an unexpected loss of hours or illness. We offer prayer when meeting with those in need.

We provide food, diapers and personal care items. Our thrift shop provides clothing and furniture. We assist with prescriptions, rent assistance, FPL and water payments.

We work with the homeless to provide temporary shelter to give them a hand up to a better life.

Please be assured of our gratitude and prayers. Your generous support allows us to lessen the burdens of the poor.

St Vincent de Paul’s Thrift Store located at 2023 Del Prada Blvd. Cape Coral is in desperate need of volunteers. We would be grateful if you can donate 2-3 hours a month. If interested call Amy at 239-573-0217.

If redecorating or moving, we need kitchen and dining room sets. They sell very quickly. Pick up is always available.

THE CHRISTIAN IDEAL

The Christian ideal has not been tried and found wanting. It has been found difficult and left untried.

Making a will can be difficult, but dying without one can make it even more difficult for your loved ones left behind.

If you do not have a will, your wishes can never be known, and your loved ones will face uncertainties, obstacles and added costs in resolving your estate.

Who will make my health care decisions, when I cannot speak for myself?

You will need to appoint a Health Care Surrogate by way of a specific legal document. If you do not have a legal Health Care Surrogate, your health care may not be carried out according to your wishes.

To learn more, you are invited to attend the Life Planning Seminar entitled: “Preparing for Today, Tomorrow and Beyond” which will be held at our parish on Tuesday, February 7, 2017 at 8:30 AM.
