Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

BEARING THE RIGHT KIND OF FRUIT
Today’s readings focus our attention on vineyards. Isaiah’s song concerning his friend’s vineyard begins with inspiring and poetic images of an idyllic vineyard where the choicest harvest is expected. Instead, the vineyard yields wild grapes, which causes the owner to abandon it. The psalmist cries out to God, asking that God once again take care of the vineyard, which is the house of Israel. The parable told in today’s Gospel offers a stern warning that those who commit treachery in the hopes of attaining personal wealth will be “put... to a wretched death” (Matthew 21:41). Jesus warns his listeners not to act like the murderous tenants in the vineyard. Instead he exhorts them to produce the kind of fruit that will lead them to the kingdom of God.

The Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time,
Sunday, October 8, 2017

This Sunday’s Readings

First Reading
Isaiah 5:1-7
The Lord compares the house of Israel to a vineyard.

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 80:9,12-16,19-20
The Lord protects his vineyard, the house of Israel.

Second Reading
Philippians 4:6-9
Paul encourages the Philippians to stay faithful to the teaching they received from him.

Gospel Reading
Matthew 21:33-43
Jesus tells the parable about the wicked tenants.

Background on the Gospel Reading
Today's Gospel follows directly after last Sunday's Gospel in which Jesus was questioned by Jewish religious leaders about the source of his teaching authority. After refusing to answer their questions, Jesus tells the parable of the two sons and then criticizes the priests and elders for their lack of belief in John the Baptist.

In today's Gospel, Jesus once again speaks to the priests and elders with a parable. In this parable, the landowner leases his vineyard to tenants and sends his servants to collect the portion of the harvest that the tenants owe to him. Several times the servants are sent to collect payment, and each time they are beaten and killed by the tenants. Finally, the landowner sends his son to collect his rent. The tenants, believing that they will inherit the vineyard if the landowner dies without an heir, plot together and kill the landowner's son.

After telling the parable, Jesus questions the chief priests and elders about what the landowner will do to the wicked tenants. They all agree that the landowner will kill the wicked tenants and give the land to new tenants who will pay the rent.

In telling the parable, Jesus is clearly drawing upon Isaiah 5:1-7, which is today's first reading and one that the priests and elders would have known well. Jesus doesn't, therefore, have to explain the symbolism of the parable; the Pharisees would have understood that the vineyard represented Israel, the landowner represented God, the servants represented the prophets, and the bad tenants represented the religious leaders. Yet Jesus nonetheless explains the meaning of the parable for his audience: the Kingdom of God will be taken from the unbelieving and given to the faithful. The chief priests and elders have condemned themselves with their answer to Jesus' question.

Today's Gospel has a parallel in Mark 12:1-12. There are some notable differences, however. In Matthew's version, the religious leaders condemn themselves; in Mark's Gospel, Jesus answers his own question. Matthew names the religious leaders as Pharisees and chief priests. Clearly this Gospel shows the tension that was mounting between Jesus and the Jewish religious leaders who thought that his message was dangerous.

Matthew’s Gospel was written about 70 years after Jesus’ death and reflects the conflicts and tensions found in the Christian community for whom Matthew was writing. Many biblical scholars believe that the tension between Matthew’s community and their Jewish neighbors can also be heard in today’s reading. This Gospel reminds us of the importance of listening to God’s word. God speaks to us in many ways—through Scripture, through our Church tradition, in our Church’s teaching, and through modern-day prophets. Are we attentive and receptive to God’s word to us through these messengers?
Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As the Caribbean Region was recovering from Hurricane Irma, they were struck again by Hurricane Maria, leaving behind devastation that had not been seen for nearly a century, especially Puerto Rico. This destruction is so great that many have lost their homes, and remain without medical care, power, food, water and other basic necessities. The region needs immediate and long-term assistance to repair and rebuild.

Media has shown us the catastrophic devastation and dire despair that our brothers and sisters are now facing. As Floridians, we know all too well how this natural disaster can wreak havoc on our families, daily lives and affect our spirits.

Parishes in the Diocese of Venice will take up an emergency collection the weekend of October 7 and 8, 2017. Your donations will be used to support those who are in the greatest need in the aftermath of Hurricane Maria. These storms have destroyed what took lifetimes to build for so many. Everything they have ever known is now gone. The loss is for them boundless.

Your generosity for the support of the recent Hurricanes Harvey and Irma, is greatly appreciated, and I thank you on behalf of those who have been and will continue to be aided through your generosity. However, the destruction to Puerto Rico cannot be overlooked or ignored. So, I ask you yet again for your compassion and support for those impacted by Hurricane Maria.

Please make your donations payable to your Parish, noting “Hurricane Maria” in the memo field. Thank you for your generosity in these difficult times and please continue to pray for victims of all natural disasters!

This opportunity is taken to extend to each of you the assurances of my continued consideration, as well as my prayers for you and your family.

Sincerely yours in Christ.

+ Frank J. Dewane
