As the earth brings forth its plants, and a garden makes its growth spring up, so will the Lord God make justice and praise spring up before all the nations.

The Third Sunday of Advent
Gospel Reading
John 1:6-8,19-28

John gives testimony that he is preaching and baptizing in order to prepare for the coming of another.

Background on the Gospel Reading
This Sunday’s Gospel invites us to continue our reflection on the person and mission of John the Baptist. Today we depart from the Gospel of Mark and read a selection from the Gospel of John.

The Gospel for today combines a brief passage from the prologue to John’s Gospel with a report about John the Baptist. As in Mark’s Gospel, the Gospel of John contains no birth narrative. Instead, John’s Gospel begins with a theological reflection that has come to be called the “prologue.” This prologue places the story of Jesus in its cosmological framework. It speaks of Jesus’ existence with God since the beginning of time. In John’s Gospel, Jesus is presented as the fulfillment of the Old Testament and the culmination of the Word, the light that is coming into the world’s darkness.

The only affirmative response that John the Baptist gives is when he quotes the prophet Isaiah. Upon answering the next question, John announces that the savior they seek is already among them, but as yet unrecognized. John’s response highlights for us an important Advent theme: Jesus has already come into the world as our savior. During Advent, we pray that we will be able to recognize Jesus’ presence in our midst. Advent also reminds us that Jesus will come again to fulfill the promise of salvation. We pray that we will continue to be watchful as we anticipate that great day.

John the Baptist is presented to us as a model during Advent. We, too, are called upon to prepare a way for the Lord. Like John the Baptist, we are messengers in service to one who is greater than we are. Our Baptism commissions us to call others to life as disciples of Jesus.

"It hasn't been extraordinary people who have changed the world; rather, it's been people who have been willing to act and live on faith," observes pastor and author Susan Smith. Drawing on biblical, historical, and contemporary stories of what she calls "crazy faith," this inspirational volume challenges readers to dare to step out and make a difference in the world. Faith is "vision fueled by action," Smith declares. Follow in the footsteps of those who have earned a place in the Hall of Faith, including Moses, Harriet Tubman, David, Nelson Mandela, Sarah and Abraham, Mother Teresa, Noah, and Mary McLeod Bethune. “

Third Sunday of Advent

On this "Rejoice!" Sunday in Advent, we can pray in a particular way for an end to material poverty. Today's readings assure us that the kind of poverty God desires for us is spiritual poverty, a radical knowledge that all things come from God. Where material poverty can wound the human spirit, spiritual poverty cultivates boundless joy. John the Baptist provides a startling model for us. In all sincerity, he admits that he is not worthy to touch Jesus' sandals. John says this not to charm the crowds by being coy and self-deprecating. No, John embraces the truth that God is the source of all goodness. We are utterly dependent on God for all good things. We cannot do anything to earn God's favor; God simply provides for us because we need God. This is massively good news! No one could possibly care for us like God does. At our very best, we merely reflect God's brightness into the world. God's brilliant joy is exactly what we are called to. As Saint Paul says, "The one who calls you is faithful, and he will also accomplish it."

ANGEL TREE PROJECT...

A huge thank you to all the wonderful, generous parishioners who helped us fulfill the needs and requests of over 1200 children and families with our Annual Angel Tree Project!

RYM couldn’t do this without Nancy Gardner and Diane Gislason—who, year after year—take on this enormous project with organization and love... they are our Angels!

Each year we have a team that organizes and sorts to ensure that each and every child receives a gift! Thank you all!

Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have; God is pleased by sacrifices of that kind. ~Hebrews 13:16

Advent Journey to Jesus Through Mary
Third Sunday in Advent

“Let us ask Our Lady, in a very special way: Mary, mother of Jesus, be a mother to each of us, that we, like you, may be pure in heart, that we, like you, love Jesus; that we, like you, serve the poorest for we are all poor. First let us love our neighbors and so fulfill God’s desire that we become carriers of his love and compassion.”

-St. Mother Teresa

The third Sunday in Advent is known as “Gaudete Sunday” which means “rejoice!” Our third Saint in our preparation for total consecration to Jesus through Mary is the perfect example of living this life of joy. St. Mother Teresa is known all over the world for her generous and loving heart, especially for the poorest of the poor. The service and missionary work that she did was all with such deep love constantly accompanied by a joy which radiated forth from within her.

To come to understand St. Mother Teresa, the founder of the Missionaries of Charity, is to meditate on the words of Jesus on the Cross, “I thirst.” The deepest desire of the hearts of both St. Mother Teresa and the Mother of God is to satisfy the thirst of the Heart of Jesus for love and for souls. While St. Louis de Montfort and St. Maximilian Kolbe show us deeply the theological significance to dependence on the Mother of God, St. Teresa shows us these truths in simplicity through her life of love. Mother Teresa always entrusted her prayers and mission to Our Blessed Lady, knowing that only through Mary could she truly love and serve Jesus. Loving trust and total surrender made Our Lady say ‘yes’ to the message of the angel. And cheerfulness made her run in haste to serve her cousin Elizabeth. That is so much our life: say ‘yes’ to Jesus and running in haste to serve him in the poorest of the poor. Let us keep very close to Our Lady and she will make that same spirit grow in each of us.” In fact, Mother Teresa’s love for Our Lady was so great that on one particular occasion a younger sister came to her and asked, “Mother, why do we always focus on Mary so much? Shouldn’t we focus more on Jesus,” to which Mother Teresa turned to her and with a smile said, “Yes, but if there is no Mary, then we will have no Jesus.”

She had a simplicity in her joy, and this led to the beautiful service she did. The entire focus was to love Jesus and to love Him through loving others by bringing His love to them. St. 2 Teresa had this understanding that the best way to prepare ourselves for the love of Jesus was through Mary. Therefore, the best way to prepare this Advent is through the great Mother of God.

As we continue our Advent Journey to Jesus through Mary, let us remember the words of Mother Teresa: “How much we need Mary to teach us what it means to satiate God’s Thirsting Love for us, which Jesus came to reveal to us. She did it so beautifully. Yes, Mary allowed God to take possession of her life by her purity, her humility, and her faithful love...Let us seek to grow, under the guidance of our Heavenly Mother...”
