Second Sunday of Lent
THE OBEDIENCE OF ABRAHAM AND JESUS

God tested Abraham by asking not for an ordinary sacrifice, which would have been a partial burning with the meat divided between God and the people and eaten by those who sacrificed, but for a holocaust, a total burning of the sacrificial animal. This type of sacrifice consecrated the entire offering to God alone. This is what God was asking of Abraham in offering his only son, Isaac. When Abraham demonstrated his obedience, that was enough. This story from today’s scriptures foretells the completion of the blood sacrifices of the old covenant in the new covenant: the blood of God’s own Son, offered to us on the cross and in the Eucharist. Abraham’s obedience foreshadows the obedience of Jesus to God’s promise of salvation. The obedience of Abraham is rewarded in the birth to him, through Isaac, of many nations. The obedience of Jesus is rewarded in the salvation of all people for all time.

2ND COLLECTION
BLACK AND INDIAN MISSION

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

This weekend the Diocese of Venice will take up a collection to benefit the Black and Indian Mission Appeal.

This Collection has for the last 131 years, changed the landscape of evangelization and education efforts for Native Americans, Alaskan Native Americans and African Americans throughout the United States. History tells us that lasting change to a community can come through faith, hope and charity.

Evangelization efforts by Churches and schools among African Americans, Native Americans, Eskimo and Aleut communities are funded by the Collection's grant awards, which are instrumental in the building of their Christian communities. Your support has helped educate African American and Native American seminarians for priestly service to our Catholic communities. It has also helped begin a new religious community for service to Native Americans. This is just a few of the endeavors made possible.

Please be generous in the Black and Indian Mission Appeal, and help strengthen the faith to those in need. Your support will truly make a difference. To learn more about the Black and Indian Missions please go to www.blackandindianmission.org.

I take this opportunity to assure you and your families of my continued consideration as well as my prayers during this Lenten Season. Thank you for your generosity!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida
During this LENTEN SEASON, we celebrate with the candidates from our parish who went to the RITE OF ELECTION in Venice.

Bishop Dewane welcomed people from 42 parishes in our Diocese with almost 400 men and women seeking FULL COMMUNION in the Catholic Faith. Gratitude and grace filled us as we prayed with them; heard their names called and saw them bless themselves with the SIGN OF THE CROSS.

Please keep praying for these ELECT:

Brian Boyd, Kayla Maldonado and her sponsor
Cesar Mateo, Jurgen Reinoudt, Robert Clark and Genie Clark with her sponsor Margaret Walker, Carmen Felipe and her sponsor Austin Niehoff.

Thank you to all the parishioners of the Resurrection Family who support and encourage others who search for faith. You are living witnesses to Christ among us. We look forward with all who will celebrate the Sacraments.

ALL ARE INVITED!

Chesterton's Saint Aquinas is a man of mystery. Born into a noble family, Aquinas chose the life of a humble friar. Lumbering and shy, his classmates dubbed him "the Dumb Ox" - but he grew up to lead a revolution in Christian thought. Possessed of the rarest brilliance, he found the highest truth in the humblest object, and led a life of almost unparalleled genius.

Share the Journey Continues...
The Diocese of Venice joins Pope Francis as he leads the worldwide, two-year "Share the Journey" campaign calling on Catholics and the faithful to 'encounter' migrants and refugees in an effort to break down barriers of fear, as well as to build bridges of understanding and hospitality.

Catholic Charities USA (CCUSA), Catholic Relief Services (CRS) and the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) are part of a global network participating in the campaign.

The Jesuits, The Church, & The Papacy

The election of Pope Francis, the first Jesuit pope in Church history, has dramatically increased popular interest in the Jesuit Order. In this presentation, Mark Brumley interviews Ignatius Press's founder and editor, Jesuit Father Joseph Fessio. He shares the story and influence of the Jesuits throughout Church History, reflects on his own life and experience as a Jesuit, and speaks especially about Pope Francis.

Parishioner Comments:
I especially enjoyed the brief portion of the talk that gave insight into Pope Francis.
