Fifth Sunday of Lent

SAVED BY GOD’S LOVE
Because the people broke the old covenant, God promised a new covenant, not in the blood of oxen and other animals, but in the blood of the Son, Jesus Christ. This new covenant, foreseen from afar by Jeremiah and the prophets, was not to be engraved on stone or written on paper, but carved on our hearts so that we might know God intimately. Not by keeping many laws are we to be saved, but by the love of God, living and real in our hearts through the sacrifice of Christ.

Our Eucharist is the pledge of that indwelling of Christ, and of our response of praise and thanksgiving to God for the mercy, love, and kindness shown to us in forgiving our sins and cleansing our hearts of every wrong. God issues this invitation to intimacy by offering us the chance to have our sufferings transformed into the perfect love of the Savior, who first loved us.

Resurrection would like to thank all the families who are currently giving electronically. You may not see these fellow parishioners place an envelope in the plate every week, but their consistent giving does not go unnoticed in our parish office. Each month our parish receives a steady and predictable stream of income from those donors who have made the commitment to give to God first by having a designated contribution automatically transferred to our parish through our Online Giving Program.

If you would like an easy, safe, and secure way of giving—
Go to our website: www.resurrectionch.org

What is human trafficking? It is considered modern day slavery and involves the use of force, fraud or coercion to propel the adult or child, male or female, citizen or immigrant into the commercial sex trade or other inappropriate work. Florida has the third highest incidence of human trafficking in the United States. The problem remains acute in Lee County.

A group of the high school teens from RYM took part in the Human Trafficking Awareness Partnerships’ ARTREACH program. They learned about Human Trafficking and collaborated in these paintings to teach others about the dangers of modern day slavery. The paintings represent what they have learned in an effort to educate and empower others. These paintings are hung at many different venues throughout the county to bring awareness to others.

“She Asked For It”
In our painting, we are representing the problem of human trafficking and how easily girls can be brought into it. “She asked for it” is representing a phrase that a human trafficker would use as an excuse for doing this harmful act.

“Don’t Fly Away on Social Media”
Social media has made its mark on the devastating world of human trafficking. Children young and younger are getting caught up in the whirlwind of social media and being impressed by strangers online. Unfortunately, this could lead to human trafficking. The birds, loosely inspired by the Twitter bird, represents the children being torn away from their lives and being dropped in the world of human trafficking.

“Ignace for Sale”
Children are innocent and the fact that people commercially sell or buys kids is god-awful.

“Reflecting on the Past”
A girl is pole dancing remembering life when she was still innocent. The white represents purity. Now, she is the dark with flashing lights.

“She Asked For It”

...learn to do good. Make justice your aim: redress the wronged, hear the orphan’s plea... ~Isaiah 1:17

REGULATIONS ON ABSTINENCE

All Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence from meat.

Abstinence from meat is to be observed by all Catholics who are 14 years of age and older. Note: If a person is unable to observe the above regulations due to ill health or other serious reasons, they are urged to practice other forms of self-denial that are suitable to their condition.

Fasting, almsgiving, and prayer are the three traditional disciplines of Lent. The faithful and catechumens should undertake these practices seriously in a spirit of penance and of preparation for Baptism or of renewal of Baptism at Easter.

The Second Greatest Story Ever Told

In this vastly popular talk, Fr. Gaitley describes the "second greatest story ever told" - a story that encompasses Divine Mercy, the life of St. Pope John Paul II, and the crucial role that Marian Consecration can play in your life. Fr. Michael Gaitley is a priest in the Congregation of Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception and the director of formation for the Marian Missionaries of Divine Mercy.

Parishioner Comments

The CD was very informative. Fr. Gaitley was very interesting, and I loved the presentation. It made me reflect about my love for Mary and for our beloved Pope John Paul. This is a CD that I will share.

The website www.sharejourney.org offers ways in which people, parishes, schools and other groups can participate.
