Today's liturgy is full of promises. The reading from Genesis promises a final triumph over the power of sin and a return to a new creation. The reading from Second Corinthians promises that all who follow Christ will have to struggle. It also promises, however, that we can persevere if we but recognize that Christ is within us, renewing us daily, and giving us the courage and the strength we need to endure. The Gospel promises that doing God's will makes us "family" with Jesus, who forgives all sin and triumphs over evil. Today might be a good day for us to make some promises as well. We can promise to stop kidding ourselves about our own tendencies to selfishness and sin. We can promise ourselves to believe--really believe--that while we are not sinless, we are forgiven. We can promise ourselves to combat evil and sin by acting as sisters and brothers not only to the Lord, but to one another as well.
Out of the depths I cry to You, O Lord;
Lord, hear my voice!

-Psalms 130:1

Prayer for Safety in Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude. You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.

St. Vincent de Paul

Pope Francis says: "Christ leads us to go out from ourselves more and more, to give ourselves and serve others".

St Vincent de Paul was awed by the response to our request for caps and reusable bags. Over 100 caps were collected and enough bags that we will not need to use plastic.

It is now rainy season.
We are in need of umbrellas.
Please drop off at the Parish Center.
Blessings on your generosity !!

THANK YOU SO MUCH!

Bishop Verot Catholic High School is still accepting applications.
We accept the Step Up for Students Scholarship.
Please visit bvhs.org/admissions or contact Jill Rhone at 239-274-6760 for more information.
