Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

LISTENING AND RESPONDING

There are three interwoven themes in today's readings: listening to God, faith vs. good works, and losing our life in order to find it. How are they related? The Suffering Servant of Isaiah undergoes much distress and ridicule, but is able to bear it because he has listened to the promptings of God day after day. The psalm tells us that God listens, too. God hears our prayers for help and is always ready to save us. As our faith deepens, so does our desire to do the works of justice and charity that build up the reign of God. God directs our actions in ways we often cannot see, and we don't always see the results. We are called upon in faith to trust what we do is enough, and willingness to listen to God's promptings will lead us in the right way.

TO THE PARENTS OF OUR YOUNG CHILDREN,
MAY WE SUGGEST...

Relax! God put the wiggle in children: don’t feel you have to suppress it in God’s house.

All are welcome!

Sit toward the front where it is easier for your little ones to see and hear what’s going on at the altar. They tire of seeing the backs of other’s heads.

Quietly explain the parts of the Mass and actions of the priest, altar servers, choir etc. Help them find the hymns and prayers in the hymnal or booklets.

Sing the hymns, pray and voice the responses. Children learn liturgical behavior by copying you.

As Jesus said “Let the children come to me.”

If you have to leave Mass with your child, feel free to do so, but please come back.

Remember that the way we welcome children to Mass directly affects the way they respond to the Church, to God, and to one another. Let them know that they are at home in His house of worship.

TO OTHER MEMBERS OF OUR PARISH...

The presence of children is a gift to the Church and they are a reminder that our parish is growing.

Please welcome our children and give a smile of encouragement to their parents.
If you see a parent struggling, please offer to help them!
It’s my mission to save you money.
