Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

TOO MUCH INFORMATION!

There is a common expression: "Too much information!" We usually use it when people tell us details about their lives that we don't want or need to know. Today, when James and John ask Jesus a simple question, making their request for places of honor in the kingdom, a simple answer might have been in order. Instead, as He often does, Jesus answers a question with a question; today it's about drinking the cup of suffering. Then, once the others are indignant over James and John's outrageous request, He proceeds to give them what may have been "too much information" for followers who were simply interested in the pursuit of glory. But this information, though it can sometimes seem "too much" for us, is essential for our lives as disciples. In Isaiah, in Hebrews, and in Mark today, we learn this information. It is in suffering, in weakness, in self-giving service to others, that we come to understand the kingdom. It is the information we need to find our place and come to be honored in the reign of God.

This Weekend
2ND COLLECTION: WORLD MISSIONS

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This weekend, the Society for the Propagation of Faith leads us in celebration of World Mission Sunday. World Mission Sunday joins Catholics worldwide into one community of Faith. The Liturgy on that Sunday invites us to recommit ourselves to our common vocation given in Baptism - to be missionaries. This is done through prayer, by participation at the Eucharist, and by supporting World Mission Sunday.

Throughout the world, churches and parishioners with low economic means are in need of prayers and generosity. The help we give to missionaries offers individuals of poverty-stricken areas vital assistance. Each year the needs of the Catholic Church in Mission territories grows, as new dioceses are formed, seminaries are opened, and areas devastated by war or natural disasters are rebuilt.

Along with your prayers, please be generous in your financial support of the Missions, responding to the vast and urgent needs of evangelization. Thank you for your generous response and prayers for the Missions!

I take this opportunity to extend to each of you the assurances of my continued consideration, as well as my prayers for you and your family.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida

Paulo Coelho - The Alchemist

Combining magic, mysticism, wisdom and wonder into an inspiring tale of self-discovery, The Alchemist has become a modern classic, selling millions of copies around the world and transforming the lives of countless readers across generations.

Paulo Coelho's masterpiece tells the mystical story of Santiago, an Andalusian shepherd boy who yearns to travel in search of a worldly treasure. His quest will lead him to riches far different—and far more satisfying—than he ever imagined. Santiago's journey teaches us about the essential wisdom of listening to our hearts, of recognizing opportunity and learning to read the omens strewn along life's path, and, most importantly, to follow our dreams.

RESPECT LIFE
God created life for us to respect from birth onward.
In our community, we have several agencies who help mothers with their pregnancy and after birth
by providing the necessities needed to care for their babies. Please consider donating baby clothes, bibs, diapers, infant toiletries, or any slightly used baby items that you no longer need.
These items can be dropped off at the parish office.
Thank you!

St. Vincent de Paul
Pope Francis says:
"Christ leads us to go out from ourselves more and more,
to give ourselves and serve others".

We are seeing an increase in NEED.
Please be generous at the Poor Boxes!
(Donations to the Poor Box go directly to SVdP to assist the poor.)

Blessings on your generosity!

2018 Candidate Questionnaire Project: What's a Catholic voter to do?

Catholic faithful are urged to choose their political leaders according to principle, not party affiliation or mere self-interest. To help parishioners become informed on where candidates stand on key issues, the Florida Conference of Catholic Bishops has polled those running for U.S. Congress and the Florida Legislature. To see how candidates appearing on the November 6 General Election ballots responded to the questionnaire, visit www.flaccb.org.
