Third Sunday of Lent

MID-LENT CHECK-IN

God says to Moses, ‘This is what you shall tell the Israelites: I AM sent me to you... The LORD, the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, the God of Jacob’ (Exodus 3:14, 15). As Jesus would later say, God is not a God of the dead, but of the living, and so we believe that the dead will one day rise. At this midpoint of Lent, we pause to consider how our repentance is leading us to the Resurrection, to our reunion with the great I AM. Part of our repentance involves working to secure justice for all and helping our neighbor to live in God’s ways. We encourage each other and nurture each other, like the compassionate gardener of today’s Gospel, who tells the owner of the orchard that he will nurture the tree, fertilize it, and perhaps it will bear fruit.

Novena Mass for Life
Monday, March 25th
8am mass
We pray that people throughout the world will have a greater respect for all human life, from womb to natural death.

CHRISTIANS OF THE HOLY LAND
representative will speak at all the Masses on the topic of the Christian identity of our Holy Land; namely the wonderful parishes commemorating Jesus' entire earthly ministry and the Catholic/Christian faithful praying and offering Mass at these churches. The Christian situation in the Holy Land is dire. What used to be a strong and vibrant 30% of the population less than 70 years ago has dropped down below 1.5%. There are several factors involved, not the least of which is economics. Traditionally, the Christian community relied on the services offered for pilgrims as a main source of income for the community, who in turn conduct commerce with each other. Olive wood items/carvings represent the only tangible product they produce and can export. Christians of the Holy Land gracefully asks your support through conscientious prayers and the purchase of these special religious art pieces. Items range in price from $10 to a few hundred and include rosaries, crosses, icons and statues. Proceeds of the sales generate much needed employment and cash flow for our Christian community in Bethlehem.

Check, cash and credit cards will be accepted.

May God continue to bless you, and answer all your prayers especially during the Lenten Season.

Next Weekend 2nd Collection: Catholic Relief Services

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In regions around the world affected by violence, many people must flee their homes and find refuge in compounds that are filled with other displaced families, often living in a makeshift shelter of cardboard, sticks, and plastic. The living conditions are unsanitary and many of the children become sick. To address this, Catholic Relief Services (CRS) supports important Catholic organizations that carry out God's work around the world by working with local authorities to relocate these families and help them create a new future.

Further, CRS staff provides plans for simple houses, with frames that can be collapsed. The families contribute labor and local materials. Together, they build clean and spacious dwellings, which dramatically change the family's quality of life. Remembering these humanitarian obligations is part of our role as Catholics, answering the call of Jesus in disguise. Your support of CRS through the annual Collection helps these families re-establish themselves through job skill training which then leads to job placement and the opportunity for a future, all with a minimal roof over their heads. The children are provided services to assist them when returning to school giving them the hope they desperately need.

The CRS Collection will take place in the Diocese of Venice the weekend of March 30 and 31, 2019.

Your support of this collection makes a difference for so many around the world. This is one more opportunity for each of us to express compassion and generosity during Lent! I take this opportunity to extend to you my continued consideration as well as my prayers throughout this Lenten Season.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop, Diocese of Venice

John O’Donohue guides you through the spiritual landscape of the Irish imagination. In Anam Cara, Gaelic for "soul friend," the ancient teachings, stories, and blessings of Celtic wisdom provide such profound insights on the universal themes of friendship, solitude, love, and death, as light, beauty, silence.

Matthew Kelly asks: What are some of the unique ways you bring hope to people in your life? The contributors featured in Beautiful Hope offer intensely personal answers to these questions, and their stories will spark your own exploration of hope and increase it’s abundance in your life.

We are not alone--God walks with us and his lively presence fills us with hope. And so we are able to smile in spite of our difficulties. Despair is defeated because God is among us. Hope does not disappoint!

Truth to Inspire Series

The Truth to Inspire Series offers children captivating dramatizations of the lives of saints and well-known Marian apparitions in order to teach them about the Catholic Faith. Through St. John Bosco’s mentorship and God’s grace, St. Dominic Savio was able to live a life of holiness, even as a young boy. Hear how St. Dominic blessed those around him with his numerous acts of charity and commitment to God.
